The 2007-08 REVIEW CLASS

Putting together a document the size of The Review is a daunting project, even when it falls to a whole class to produce. The TGJ3M Communication Technology class was made up of students with varying degrees of experience and work ethics, and the output from these young men was just as mixed. In the end, when the summer arrives and the students have gone home, I try to find time and opportunity to proof, correct and re-do the many pages that don't quite make the grade, or meet the high standards set from previous productions. Often this process ends up being undertaken well into the new school year. This was no exception...and I'm pretty 'year-booked out'.

While there are always mistakes in a student based production, I think the 2007-08 Review is a pretty impressive publication. Hopefully you'll agree.

Thanks to: Lorraine Wilkes, Lou Taskey and Mark Burton and the members of PSAC for all the photos they have submitted, to Barb Cain for helping identify the Middle Schools kids on an ongoing basis, Pauline for proofing, my Jostens yearbook Rep, Elaine Turcotte for always helping out and finally, Mr. Staunton and the Leadership team for their support and understanding.

Cheers!

Homecoming

On September 29, 2007, many of the old boys and their families were invited to join us for Homecoming. At Homecoming, there is an all day competition of football, soccer and volleyball. Also available are children's games, food, marketplace shopping and many other events. While lots of families were on the quad having fun, the sports teams were working hard. The Middle School started their matches early in the morning and they were trying their best. In the afternoon, the First teams started to have their matches, starting with 1st Soccer, then 1st Volleyball, and finally the last game of the day was 1st Football. In the end, a fine day was had by all.

This years Cross Country Run took place in great weather on the 4th of October. The race got off to a great start with a right out of the gate sprint. Of course the racers began to slow down as the race progressed but there was always a steady form of competition coming from the Andreans. In the end it came down to a deserving win by Stefan Noel from the Upper School and a quick finish by Mark Denton from the Middle School. A special thanks to all the volunteers for setting up the race as well as having drinks ready for all the racers at the finish line. Once again the Cross Country Race proved to be another Years Highlight.

Overall, this edition of the First Football Saints was the third best team this decade at St. Andrew's, the other two having won CISAA and Provincial Championships. On the offensive side of the ball, this season saw the emergence of tremendous individual performers, as well as a number of frustrating inconsistencies. Nick Saro enjoyed another outstanding season, Zack Miller and Shane Samson developed into game-changing receivers, Max Bauer flashed signs of brilliance throughout the year and his composure and leadership ability will be crucial to our overall team success next season. Our offensive line also came together as a unit and this cohesion was evident during the semi-final triumph over TCS. During the game we ran for nearly 200 yards on the ground and threw the ball all over the field without surrendering a single sack.

On the defensive side of the ball, we began our season having lost 11 defensive starters and very concerned about stopping other teams offenses. In the early part of the year, this was no issue as we dominated teams sometimes giving up fewer than 5 first downs in a whole game. Our defensive dominance continued for the majority of the year until we met an opponent who just physically beat us up, St. Mike's. In both the regular season and in the final we prepared for every single offensive play they could run, and despite this, we weren't physically able to stop them. With only five defensive starters graduating and great group of young players ready to go, next year St. Mike's is clearly on our radar screen.

One measure of a team is not where a team ends up, but how far they travelled to get there. U16 Football travelled far, and the journey was beautiful. Having not been in the CISAA finals for 4 seasons, and barely making the playoffs last year, it was a real pleasure to see a team that was willing to work hard to make things happen. It was also a pleasure to welcome new Offensive Coordinator Mr. Rob Costanzo who brought a passion, commitment, and enthusiasm to the game.

Season Record 4 Wins and 3 Losses. Game scores were as follows

- L: S.A.C. 19 @ TCS 32
- W: Villanova 0 @ S.A.C. 13 (Homecoming)
- L: SMC 39 @ S.A.C. 12
- W: S.A.C. 40 @ Ridley 0
- W: S.A.C. 43 @ UCC 6
- W: S.A.C. 28 @ TCS 14 - CISAA Semi Final
- L: S.A.C. 20 @ SMC 46 - CISAA Championship Game

By far the best U16 Football team we have fielded in many years - the score does not tell the whole story: SMCS 20 - SAC 14 at the half - the first half was a very close game. SMCS executed near perfectly including some amazing passes and clutch catches (even in double coverage) that were simply impossible to stop. For the first time against us, SMCS were forced to keep their first string on the field for the entire game.

SMCS had to work for every yard - a few big passes, but there was not a single "big run". (Another first - yea Defence!)

Your Saints had some amazing plays: great catches, scintillating runs, and big hits, the crowd got their money's worth. (Thanks fans!)

Although winning was the objective, the finals were a superb game and a fitting end for a great season and a great group of players. It was a pleasure!

MVP: David Head

MIP: Andy Mok

1ST SOCCER

By all accounts First Soccer had a strong season. The team served notice to the competition by going undefeated in its first 4 games and ultimately finishing the season with an overall record of 9 wins, 4 losses, and 4 ties. Led by a handful of returning veterans, a new group of young players stepped forward: Ander Lanzagorta scored 16 of the team's 43 goals; Alex Culp played more minutes than anyone else in the team; Chris Reel's leadership and ball distribution skills brought his teammates to a higher level of play. Andre Goyo and Craig Davis showed their potential and are on the verge of blossoming into dominant players; look for them to set the league on fire next season. Jason Durst's energy and athleticism hounded opposing players, and he developed into an offensive threat, even if his shots had a tendency to go very very high. Ben Power made the right side his own and had an effective season making great crosses and creating goals. Ryan Lee continued his development and will have an impact next year. Martin Robertson and Frank Sciortino formed a formidable backstopping team, shutting out the opposition 8 times and bringing a sense of calm and trust to the team.

We must bid adieu to several graduating Andreans: the Sucunza brothers, Nico and Diego leave us after 2 seasons. Nico returned from a serious knee injury to add creativity and flair to the midfield; his bicycle kicks – not always successful – brought ooohs and aaaahs from the crowd. Diego's tough play put fear into opposition players: his dominance at both ends of the field rewarded him with several goals and a series of impressive performances. Andrew Wallace scored 8 goals and made himself popular with referees and opposing defenders. His competitive fire and never-say-die-attitude pushed the team forward throughout the season. Alex Leon adapted to a new position and became a stalwart in defence. Jon Si amazed us all with his acrobatics on the field; he could be counted on for at least one diving header in every game! Dongyoung Kim's highlight of the season was his goal against TCS: his notable foot skills saw him dance by two defenders before finishing clinically in the bottom corner. Dylan Baker, our captain, played with a dedication seldom seen in a high school soccer player; he inspired and directed his teammates in every game. One referee said that Dylan played his position better than anyone he had come across in the last 5 years. Countless coaches and spectators remarked on his excellent positioning, timing, and passion. His leadership has been strong; he will be missed by players and coaches alike. ND.

This year's version of JV Soccer had a very bitter sweet season. While we finished out of the playoffs, on the wrong end of a three way tie for 3rd place with a 5-3-2 record. We did however, hand the eventual league champions (LCS) their only loss of the season 3-0. Many lessons were learned and a positive sign was the fact that we played our best soccer as the season came to a close. This was a great group to work with and we wish them well with their future soccer goals. For our graduating players: Brandon, Adrian, Aaron, and Kevin thank you for your efforts and dedication to the team. Your impact will not be forgotten.

This year's Most Improved Player began the year playing only a supporting role. By the end of the season however, this gentleman led with hard tackling, consistant decision making, and quiet leadership, becoming a fixture in our starting eleven. This year's MIP is Adrian Eng.

The most valuable player is an award given to just that, a team's most valuable player in every facet of the game. This player led by example, was vocal when he needed to be, and other times let his play do the talking. As coaches, we could always count this gentleman to anchor our effort on any given day. This year's JV Soccer MVP, is Grant Nych.

The U16 Soccer season was a season of hard work, daily fun, exhilaration, disappointment and, in the final analysis, tremendous satisfaction. A league of seven teams - six 'Davids', all with an eye to toppling the 'Goliath' of the league - St. Michael's College!

After a crushing defeat at the hands of St. Mike's at our Homecoming, a respectable season record afforded an opportunity to battle St. Mike's in a semi-final match, on their home turf. It was a prospect the team embraced; a chance to right a wrong. There was no denying that St. Mike's players were bigger, and more skilled, but the Andrean Spirit proved a force to be reckoned with! A planned defensive posture proved effective, and frustrating to the their strikers. Our mid-field and forwards created their own real opportunities. A first chance came early in the game, with a shot just narrowly missing the goal. When St. Mike's finally scored their first goal it did not demoralize the team, but only served to make them more determined. Game highlights include a super save by rookie goalie, and MIP, Matt Andreachhi on a St. Mike's penalty shot. MVP, and Captain, Vince Pulla, had a spectacular field length run that nearly ended in a solo goal. Every play was a battle, and, though we lost the game, the U16's walked off the field with their heads held high.

On the first practice with the U15 Soccer team, I asked the players who their favourite professional team was. Expecting to hear Man Utd, Barcelona or Celtic, many players told me that their favourite team was Toronto FC.

Well we certainly emulated Toronto FC in our results this season and I fell just a bit closer to coach Moe Johnston. However, if developing skills and fostering a passion for the game is the measure of success, then we certainly had a very successful season.

Highlights of the year include almost every nail-biter game we played, many of which I felt the boys deserved to win with their passing game and team energy. Nevertheless, we won the most important match of the year – our Homecoming Game against Royal St. George. That's the won that counts.

I'd like to thank all the players on the Under 15 team for a truly enjoyable soccer season.

This season's Under 14 Tier 1 soccer team was a mix of 8 members of last year's Under 13 team along with the addition of another 8 new students who made substantial contributions to our season. The boys completed their 7 game season with a record of 6 wins and 1 loss. The highlight was our final league game when we were able to defeat last year's champions, Upper Canada College by a 5-0 score while the low point was a 2-0 loss to St. Michael's College School on Homecoming day. However, we were able to avenge that earlier defeat by outscoring St. Mike's 2-1 in the final to secure the second consecutive CISAA championship for the school at this level. I would like to take this opportunity to thank our captain Daniel Milne and his assistants, Kelsey Boland and Sean Smith for their outstanding leadership. Similarly, I would like to thank all of the members of this team for working so well together in order to achieve the goal that we set for this team in early September. I would now like to recognize our two award winners. Our MIP was a player who was desperate to be an scorer but put that aside when asked to become a defender and over the season became a most reliable player in that position. Our MVP suffered a fairly serious injury in late September but recovered and became a feared striker who scored 4 of our 5 goals on the final tournament day.

This team had a lot of heart, they were all true well rounded citizens of the Andrian brotherhood. At the start of the season we were unsure as to how the team could compete against a rather strong opposition in the U-14 League. However as the season went on and we gained more opportunity to practice and hone our skills we saw vast improvement among the u 14 tier 2 Team. As we had our ups and downs we were able to make into the first round of the playoffs but were then defeated in a tough heartbreaker loss. All in all it was a great year where many new friends, memories, skills, were made. DJ.

This year's team was fortunate to travel to Vancouver to participate in the CAIS National Soccer Tournament. The boys played exceptionally well despite 4 straight days of rain. The opening ceremonies started at 7:00 am., under the lights and already the fields were 3 inches deep with water. We were later told that we had experienced record wind and rainfall for Vancouver.

The team finished off with a 2 and 5 record losing 3 of the 5 by only one goal. The boys enjoyed the chance to bond with their buddies on a five hour flight with unlimited pop and treats that the flight attendants so patiently delivered.

The boys were highly praised on their behaviour and fine manners from the generous families from Collingwood School who billeted our team during the tournament. I would like to thank the team for a great season. MD.

I started out this term co-coaching the Jr. Cross-Country running team. As it turned out, there were so many talented soccer players in grade 7 this year, that there was a demand for a second Under-13 team. I chose the 17 boys who were to make up the Under-13 Tier 2 team and I knew we were going to have a great time. We won our first game convincingly by the score of 4-1. Unfortunately, most of the teams we faced were the Tier 1 teams for their prospective schools, and our first victory against CDS was also our last.

Our last game of the season was also our best. In this semi-final, the boys played their hearts out. We led 1-nil for much of the game before giving up two goals in the last third of the game. We fought hard and almost tied it up but it was not meant to be, and we lost 2-1. It was an extremely entertaining game in which Stefano Scaini, Burke White, Owen McCleery, Charlie Hilboldt and Spencer Harris played some of their best soccer of the season.

U13B SOCCER

The U12 soccer team started the season as a fairly quiet group. It was actually a little concerning at first, but, of course, that soon changed. Their real selves came out, and despite the fact that they possessed a huge range of personality types, they managed to find a way to work together and in the end were a very cohesive group.

We started the season with a few drubbings but soon started to show signs of improvement. The greatest gains for many of the players were in the areas of positioning and overall aggression. Great progress was demonstrated in the defensive end by Jordan Brown, Tristan Joseph, Chris Lakkotrypiss, Andy Peng, and Bilaal Rajan. Great gains were also shown in the forward half by George Ciuciureanu, Braeden Glendinning, Georgio Govedaris, Eric Grigorof, and Tom Rockman.

We went on to play a much more complete game which earned us a few wins, including league matches against Country Day School and UCC B. The most inspired soccer, though, may have been the friendly match played against Mr. Richardson's team at the end of the season. Neither side would give an honest answer as to what the score was, but it was great fun.

We have played against some of the best 3A-4A teams in the province from 4A perennial champions Saunders to Eden, last year's 2A Champions.

We won an exciting homecoming game coming from behind from a 2-0 deficit against a strong TCS team. We finish the CISAA League season with a 9-2 record ... November 23-24 We will represent CISAA at OFSAA. Not a bad season at all. We have tremendous potential to be the surprise team next year, as most of our core players will be returning. We will graduate two players this year, David Lee and Barney Tong. Barney and David, Thanks for two great seasons.

The U14 volleyball had a very successful season. It had all the ups, downs and in betweens that great teams go through. The initial thought was this season was that of a "rebuilding process." Our playoff run was cut short by a strong serving Villanova team that just happen to be the better team on that day. Throughout the entire season, our captains, Michael Sifton and Spencer Feeley, displayed the leadership needed from this title. The "never let the ball hit the ground" attitude of Marc Gallo, John Tuer and Taylor Joseph anchored our solid defense. Next season, with several key returning players promises to be one with high expectations. Congratulations on such a tremendous season and great ready for the 2008 edition.

This fall, the U16 volleyball team had only three returning players. We added six grade 9s to the team, making a team of only nine. Before the season started, we travelled to St. Catherine's to play in an early-bird tournament. The competition was tough and it was the perfect way to prepare for the regular season. We went on to play 6 league games and finish 4-2, leaving us in third place in our division, facing Hillfield in the quarter finals. When we played Hillfield in regular season, two of our guys couldn't make the game. We had seven players – and since we need to provide a linesman, there was literally no one on the bench. Most improved player: in his first game at the early-bird, our MIP was trying to pass a ball but somehow it ended up swishing in the basketball net at the back of the gym and the linesman raised his hands to signal "3" – we thought he might have the wrong sport. By the end of the season, he was a reliable contributor and he will be a great leader next year.

Season Highlights:

The 22 runners on the 2007 Jr. Cross-country team enjoyed a great season, not only improving their endurance and fitness, but having several top-10 finishers. I would like to commend the entire team for running their best, and for pushing one another to improve their times.

We participated in 5 meets, finishing off the season 4th over all at the dramatic CIS Championship meet. The course was tough, and the competition even tougher. Two of our top runners - Diego Sada (U14) & Nikil Bhardwaj (U12) suffered minor injuries, but still finished strong - Diego blasted past upwards of 20 runners during the second loop of a difficult trail. I'd like to thank Mr. Tsioros for being an Assistant coach and accompanying the team to the meets & Ms. Fernandez for assisting at the Sunnybrook Park meet.

The Outreach Committee and the St. Andrew's Society for Service Around the World (SASSAW) organized a charity concert called "Minga for Malawi: An African Celebration Concert" in January as one of the major fundraisers for the 2008 SASSAW project in Malawi, Africa. Acts included Toronto-based African musical troupes - Ngoma, a dance and drum ensemble and TC3, the Toronto Children's Concert Choir - as well as several SAC student acts including our St. Andrew's drummers, and Isicathulo - a South African Gumbboot Dance troupe consisting of members of the 2008 SASSAW project team. Audience members enjoyed a lively and entertaining concert and as a result, they responded generously during the Live Auction at the start of the second half of the show. In total, almost $15,000 was raised from this event for the construction of a kitchen facility for the Mulanje Mission Hospital in the town of Mulanje, Malawi.

The Junior Varsity hockey team had a very successful season. Our overall record was 23-3-2 and we won three out of the four tournaments that we entered. At the Lakeshore tournament in St. Catherines in January, we defeated Denis Morris, last year's AAA/AAAA OFSAA hockey silver medalist, 4-0 in the semi final. Our stay at the Great Wolf Lodge most definitely contributed to our success at the Lakeshore tournament as the guys were clearly relaxed the day after an evening on the waterslides.

For the first time in several years, St. Andrew's College fielded an Under-16 hockey team and it was SAC's intention to create a winner... that's where we come in. Coach Harding and I are winners, in every sense! And when the team was finally chosen, we were encouraged as there was an abundance of hockey talent. The season progressed well, but the challenge of gelling as a team was proving difficult. However, our journey was not without its lighter moments. I won't soon forget Coach Harding explaining to a referee as he skated by our bench, "Sir, you really are not on your game today. You're not a bad person but you certainly did not bring your 'A' game today". Or, Mario Settino asking the poignant question as we passed the Catholic Cathedral just off of the 404 in Cathedral Town, "I wonder who lives in that house. They must be loaded." The answer "Jesus" was in my mind but I made no comment as none seemed necessary. The 4-hour bus ride from Toronto to Aurora during a snowstorm was a great deal of fun, particularly when our evil bus driver leaned into her microphone and said, "Would you move the bag from the aisle... move the bag from the aisle." That bag was none other than Alex Adams who was calling his Mommy. In the end, it was a team that knew how to have some fun, wasn't always serious when it needed to be, but seemed to be coming together at the time that it meant the most. During regular season play, we were 3rd in our division behind Crescent and Villanova. In our quarter-final game vs. Crescent, the boys played their hearts out and dominated the game, defeating a strong Crescent 5-2. Our next match was against CDS who, like Crescent, we had not defeated all season. your Saints were flying and controlled the tempo of this semi-final, defeating our arch-rivals 5-2. In the final, we faced a powerhouse in Villanova. They had lost only once all year and were poised to take it all. However, the Saints came out flying once again and gained an early lead of 3-0. But, like all good teams, Villanova fought hard and found a way to win. By mid-3rd period, we were back on our heels and a couple of costly mistakes opened the door for a 6-4 Villanova win. However, this team should be very proud of its accomplishments because we went further than anyone anticipated. And I would be remiss if I didn't take the time to thank the leadership of our Captain, Ben Van Galen, and the assistant captains Justin Nice, James Mildon, and Matt Sovereign, who took this team further than anyone could have hoped.

As the changing of the seasons necessitate that hockey bags get packed away and lacrosse sticks get primed for glory yet to be realized I'd like to revisit a theme that was developed as our season progressed...the nature of regret. I'd like to ask the 2007-2008 U-16 hockey team to consider the following. If we were beaten by a Villanova team that was superior in skill and ability, can we truly regret losing? I don't think so, that is out of our control. If however, we lost because we couldn't keep pace with them because we were tired and weak is that within our control? The question really becomes what are we willing to do to become champions. The lesson for me is how do we prepare ourselves so that we can eliminate the regret of letting something slip away that was very much within our control.... In any case, good season. I hope you'll join me in the weight room over the term, eliminating weakness, eliminating regret.

U14 Hockey had an incredibly successful season - losing only 3 games. Unfortunately, one of those games was an OT loss in the quarter-finals to Crescent School.

The season brought forward many highlights - so, staying within the parameters of time - here are the Top 5 U14 hockey season highlights:

5. GPS units on all the pucks - thus resulting in no lost pucks this year.
4. The goaltending of Jason Barron - otherwise known as 'The Barron Wall'.
3. The play of Daniel Milne, Taylor Joseph and James Lappin - these guys were a force unto themselves - scoring 90% of our teams goals...that's pretty good! At this point I would like to acknowledge and thank our team Captain - Daniel Milne and Assistant Captains - James Lappin, Taylor Joseph and Arun Partridge.
2. Our MIP, as selected by the players and coaches - with us for his second year, this young defenceman really picked up and improved his game - C.J. Sifton and our number one highlight...
1. Our MVP, as selected by the players and coaches - the guy who would dangle the puck, even if he would have an empty net to score in, James Lappin. Congratulations to all players for an amazing season.

The 1st Basketball team enjoyed a competitive year on the hardwood which ended with some great drama throughout the final games of the season. A team of highly competitive and spirited athletes worked together all year long and developed into a very cohesive team that contended with some of the strongest teams in the region. The year began on a high note, as the team captured the consolation championship at the high profile Notre Dame Tip-Off Tournament in Welland, Ontario. As the season progressed, the Saints also had strong showings at tournaments in Barrie, Kitchener, and at their own 6th Annual St. Andrew's Senior Boys' Basketball Tournament. Opposing coaches, spectators, and referees continuously mentioned that this year's team consistently demonstrated strong character as they worked hard, smart, and together to achieve victories. The season ended on a very high note, as the Saints avenged an early season loss to Crescent by beating them twice in a row at home - by 2 points in each game! The memory of Cruiser Fung driving the lane for a bucket at the buzzer will remain for many years to come. Congratulations to the team for a great season. With only four players graduating from this year's squad, there is plenty of room for the team to develop and improve over the summer months in preparation for another great season in 2008-09.

On behalf of Coach Ryan and myself, I would like to thank your Junior Varsity Basketball team for an exciting season. Over the course of the season, our team improved significantly and we competed in several hard fought games. Though inconsistent play cost us some games, we showed that we could play with the top teams in our division.

We had several leaders on the floor, to name a few: Pirathap Loganathan kept defences honest with his smooth dribbling and mostly sharp passes, Graydon Calvert led the team with points and technical fouls, Kegan Sheehan developed into a rebounding machine, and Boris Wong showed that he was a scoring threat from anywhere on the floor. For many players, this was their first season on a school basketball team; but by the end of the season, all members of the team were contributing regularly.

This season was busy with two tournaments, 9 league games, and an exhibition game. Given our record was 2 wins 7 losses in league play, this was certainly a character building year. From the start, with only 1 returning player from last year's team, the task of reaching the playoffs was certain to be a challenge. Despite being overmatched in some games and falling just short in others I was encouraged with our effort, our willingness to fit in extra practices, and the fact we showed up for every game with the mindset that we could win. Down the stretch, our game was much improved and so too was our determination to compete. I recall one game in particular in which we were down by 18 to HSC at half time. We could have easily lost the second half by another 18, instead we won the second half, pulling even with under two minutes to play. Though 2 3-pointers beat us, we came to realize we could compete against the better teams. Our next game was a victory over Crescent. Looking ahead to next year our position will be much improved with 7 returning players. Learning the defensive and offensive sets will take a lot less time and we should be able to expand our arsenal of tactics.

The first ever U16 Tier 2 team finished the season with a 5-6 record after a 1-4 start. Game after game the boys demonstrated a dramatic improvement and started to believe that they were capable of competing with every team in the CISAA league. All but one of the losses were by less than 8 points including an overtime heartbreaking loss.

Every game was very exciting, from start to finish. Ms. Derwin and I could not have been more proud of them. It was rewarding to watch different players shine and help elevate the level of play.

These young athletes will move on to help the Basketball Program remain very competitive in the years to come. They displayed a winning approach, great skills, and a very supportive team attitude, which are important characteristics in the development of a good athlete and a competitive team.

Unfortunately, we were unable to meet our goal of making playoffs, but we were successful in achieving many others including the most important one: play as a team, play for the TEAM. This attitude made us fierce competitors. Well done, Chicos!

The U14 team started the season with most of the team members having not played on a competitive team before. This put us at a great disadvantage as all the teams we played had been together for a few years. Despite having little success in our games, everyone on the team gave their very best at all times and we never once gave up. We were fortunate that we did have one very good player who accounted for about 60% of all our scoring. Without him we would have been much less competitive. We had a few close games in the regular season but unfortunately we were unable to win a game.

The highlight of our season was two in. One at home and one in Ottawa. we managed to win four games and so on the season. I would like to thank all great season and look forward to seeing School next year.

This year's edition of the Under 13 basketball team included a number of returning players from last year's team so there were high hopes that their experience would create a strong foundation for the season. However, it did not take too long to realize that our level of skill was not quite as strong as that of our opponents. As a result, the wins were small in number and the team was unsuccessful in securing a playoff position in the CISAA league. The real highlight of our season was the chance to represent the College at the CAIS Under 13 basketball tournament in Ottawa where we had a chance to compete against teams from British Columbia, Manitoba, Alberta along with other Ontario independent schools. In addition, the team had a great chance to tour the Nation's capital and make new friends while they were being billeted with the Ashbury College families. Both coaches would like to take this opportunity to commend all members of the team for their positive attitude in practices and during games where we struggled to keep pace with some very talented teams.

I used to worry about winning but now I just focus on competition. Athletes love competition, that is why they play. They love to win but it is losing that motivates them to play and improve. So, tryouts for the squash team never really end. Every Monday guys play challenge matches to improve their rankings. Every Tuesday guys compete against other members of the community – teachers, parents, old boys, hockey players and football players in our Tuesday night Intramural League. On Wednesday we test ourselves against other schools. On Friday we mix the teams up and play handicap matches where an U14 player can compete on a level playing field with a varsity player and anyone can win. And then on a few weekends, the guys play in provincial calibre tournaments and get crushed by adults and juniors who play 12 months of the year and then on Monday they again do battle with one another. Competition, in a variety of forms, is what drives our success.

Each year I offer to run a Development Squash program for 10 guys to try and allow new players to learn the game. Most guys waste this opportunity but a few, like Dennis Cheung and Radissen Ramoutar this year, really take advantage of it. Last year, DongYoung Kim came to the school in grade 11 having never played before and joined the development squash team finishing the season ranked 17th. As the year finished and we all looked forward to the summer, DongYoung boasted to me that next year he would be my number 1 player. To my shock and delight DongYoung made good on his promise and did earn the #1 ranking for a few weeks this season. I have never seen a player improve so much in the course of only a few months. The MIP award must go to DongYoung for improving his rank by 14 rungs on the ladder from 17th last year to a final rank of 3rd this season.

It has been another great squash season for us. I had a core group of top players returning from last season, and they were instrumental in setting a very high standard all season. We have an amazing squash facility with 6 courts, and each players getsto spend lots of time on the court, working on drills to refine skills, or playing competitively to measure his worth. As a result, the amount by which squash players improve over the course of the season is substantial. One of the most impressive aspects of our program, and key to our success, is the commitment and dedication shown by our players. They show an incredible dedication to our program. They and are always there, and unless they are sick or injured, never miss a practice or a game. Our championship is determined by a round-robin tournament, which we hosted here at St. Andrew's. Each team consists of 7 players ranked #1 to 7, and each player plays all the other players of the same rank. That means that each player plays 5 matches, earning 1 point for every match he wins.

I am very happy to announce that the U16 squash team has won this year's championship!. We won an incredible 33 matches out of a possible 35, beating 2nd placed TCS by a score of 5-2 in the process, and winning by a perfect score of 7-0 against all the other schools.

This was a building year for the Junior Swim team, as almost half of the team consisted of new swimmers. Throughout this long season, each member worked hard to improve their individual times, perfect their strokes, and build their endurance in the water. New friendships were formed within relay teams and during our boisterous water polo games. Teammates encouraged each other well. From helping one another master flips and dives, to teaching each other the difficult Butterfly stroke, to simply saying a heartfelt, 'Good job', the team supported one another when it counted. Honorable mention must be given to Sajjad Akbar, who placed 12th in individual rankings, Eugenio Forbes, who placed 4th in individual rankings, and the dynamic Medley Relay team of Sajjad, Ernesto, Eugenio, and Spencer who placed 6th in the 200 meter race. Mrs. McGregor and I would like to say a big thank you to two people who really went above and beyond for us: Ms. Thorne, who provided her wisdom and time to help us smoothly run our first meet here, and Gaelen MacKenzie, who acted as a very attentive lifeguard and sombre Change room supervisor. I would also like to personally thank Mrs. McGregor; one could not ask for a better co-coach.

The 1st and U16 swim teams started the season with a drive to improve on their 5th and 3rd place finishes from last year. Although both of the teams were considerably smaller this year, Coach Walden and I were optimistic that the return of many strong grade 10 and 11 swimmers and the addition of several new grade 9 students would help the boys hang in tough with the Ridley, Appleby and the large and powerful team from TCS. Led by their captain, Barney Tong, the boys logged countless hours in the pool, running drills and long endurance sets until their muscles nearly gave out from exhaustion. They even asked to add an early morning practice on Thursdays so they could get more time in the pool! Evidently, their hard work paid off as each individual athlete improved both his fitness level and his stroke technique, thus setting the bar high for the next year's team. In the end, the team improved on last year's CISAA result by placing third in the boys division, only 12 points behind Ridley. As a result of their performances at the final CISAA meet, five SAC students qualified for the OFSAA championship that was held just before the March Break. At that meet, Barney Tong placed 6th in the senior boys 200 freestyle and 5th in the senior boys 100 freestyle; Craig Davis placed 10th in the junior boys 50 freestyle; and Barney and Craig, along with Jonathan Ramsay, Jonathan Thomson and Phil Whitfield, placed 4th in the senior boys 200 freestyle relay. Despite swimming only 4 events at OFSAA, these boys pulled together enough points to place them 17th out of 141 teams in the province; congratulations boys! A.T.

ALPINE SKI

This was going to be a tough year...or so we thought. With 80% of our former OFSAA and CISAA championship team graduating last year we knew that there would be some significant obstacles to overcome to find the same relative success as in the past. Right from day one, however, all of the coaches were thrilled with the sheer number and dedication of Alpine Skiers. In fact, with such a large group, for the first year in many we actually had to limit the size of even our non racing, developmental team.

Fortunately we were in luck this year over previous ones in the fact that mother nature cooperated. While many of you groaned and complained about the amount of early snow, we were thrilled as it allowed us to have an early start to on hill race training.

Our first race was truly disappointing. Finishing off of the podium for the first time in 5 years was certainly a tough pill to swallow, however, it is a credit to the team that they did not give up but rather worked even harder to improve and become more competitive.

Fifth Row: Jake Stereo, Brendan Noxon, Anil Partridge

First Row: Mr N. Day Esq., Brandon Andrews, Hamilton Petropolous, Cameron Oram, Dylan Baker, Bennett Kane, James Butler, Mr. J. Inglis Esq., Ms. Elliott Esq.

What happened next was amazing – while other teams’ began to struggle, our success grew, culminating in a remarkable race at the OFSAA qualifier. Here, our Level two team consisting of Cameron Oram, Spencer Jackson, Andrew Kerr, Nick Mulder and Brett Wilson were able to secure a spot to the provincial championships with some truly fantastic results. In addition, Dylan Baker won his race in level 1 earning himself an individual birth to the championships.

After a remarkable comeback, our Level 2 team unfortunately fell a little short in our CISAA championship race, narrowly missing the gold medal by only 2 places. With this resurgence of the team, however, we were raring to compete once again at the provincial finals. Sure enough, after some remarkable individual performances by Dylan Baker in the Level 1 individual finishing 8th in Giant Slalom and Spencer Jackson finishing 2nd in Slalom and 7th in Giant Slalom our level 2 team secured the 4th place team ribbon in Slalom and the bronze medal in Giant Slalom. Considering where we started and our modest expectations at the beginning to finish in the top three in the province was truly a remarkable feat and a testament to the effort of our team.

NORDIC SKI & BIATHLON

It seemed as if mother nature was going to cooperate with the Nordic ski team this season. As if she knew that we had a very young team with several novice skiers, she delivered a major snowfall very early this year. Several weeks ahead of schedule, the team was ready to begin skiing on the trails. We took full advantage of this training opportunity before the weather turned against us. All the glorious snow that arrived early, and provided such great ski conditions, left us as quickly as it had come. As a result, the first three races of the season were cancelled due to lack of snow. The young team made the best of this situation and trained diligently without skis and was ready for when the snow returned. Ironically, the following two races were also cancelled due to too much snow and whiteout conditions. Despite these setbacks, the boys did end up taking part in several races and produced some very impressive results. The most notable was Ryan Cole who managed an 8th place overall finish in the CIS and earned himself a spot at OFSAA Nordic in North Bay, where he managed a personal best time for his 10km event on an extremely challenging course.

I'd like to give a special thank you to Taylor Brown who, after many strong seasons with the team, will be graduating this year and to the middle school boys who showed a lot of courage and persistence learning a new sport. Their effort and combined positive attitude bodes well for the future of the Nordic ski team.

Because the 2006-2007 year was the inaugural year for the SAC curling team in the CISAA, it was a year of growth and learning. This year's goal, however, was to become more competitive, and to give the more established teams a real run for their money. This meant strange things appeared on the curling sheets during early season practice. Other coaches wondered why there were pylons on the ice and why our players were sliding out to grab at food tied to a broom. But the drills proved to be important in pushing the curlers' skills further and faster than even I expected. Again this year, over half of our team was brand new to the sport. I applaud those who came out to try something new. Coaches from other teams regularly commented about how much progress we had made in such a short time period. Having divided the two teams by skill and experience, I was both surprised and elated by the final playdowns for Team B. Ryan Coverdale managed to lead his team to a 2nd place finish in their open division, barely losing in the final end to a team that was far more experienced. Gentlemen, I would welcome each of you back to the team next year. Tim's is waiting for you. I can't wait to see what you can accomplish!

Our MIP this year is a student who had never played the game before, but earned himself a spot on the team of players from last year. His focus on skill development was determined and he took every suggestion to heart: Jin Woo Park
 Our MVP continued to fine-tune his skills this year, continually making jaw-dropping final shots that amazed spectators. He took his strategic play to the next level and lead his team with an even temper: Bryn Jones.

This year we had very impressive results! The fencing team had 10 members with 80% of the the team new to the sport of fencing. We competed in 3 province wide tournaments this year, hosting one called the "Saint's Fencing Challenge", where we challenged Ridley to a duel, but they did never showed up! This seasons results included 2 Silver and 3 Bronze medals with Andy Mok winning a silver in Foil and a Slver in Epee. Michael Wong won a Bronze in Epee, John Cockshutt and Russell Kwan both won a bronze in Foil. Once again very impressive results! Fencing is sport that requires very fast mental and physical skills and requires patience, hard work, and dedication. Anthony Marchese is this year's MIP and has exemplified these qualities the best. The MVP goes to Andy Mok, who is also the team captain and a double silver medalist. Andy was great in assisting and organizing the team to tournaments and practices.

It was the season of finals. We were

- CAIS Plate Finalists
- CISAA Finalists
- OFSAA Consolation Finalists.

We started the season trying to implement a completely pod based system – no forwards, no backs, just groups of 5 players each responsible for their third of the field, and for lineouts on their side of the field. It was ambitious, it was interesting, but in the end it was too complicated and was asking too much of players who had only a few weeks to develop all the skills necessary. After accumulating an unimpressive 2 wins and 5 losses we abandoned the system and returned to a more traditional game.

The second half of our season was more successful. We had a record 21-5 league game victory over UCC but lost the CISAA finals to a very strong TCS side. We entered OFSAA seeded 12th (as a second place team) and managed to make a competitive game of the Consolation Finals against #6 seed St. Clair.

Season Highlights:

- The amazing open field running of Zech Miller. When he hit the ball at full stride there was not a defence in the province that could stop him.
- The superb ruck work of team Captain Francesco De Rose, the best prop in the league.
- The amazing versatility of MVP Matt Hale who played this season in the back 3, at #8, as our lineout thrower, and as inside centre. He was a devastating force at any position.
- The great defence and opportunistic play of inside centre James Butler.
- The hard running and even harder hitting of Morgan Bonner and Diego Sucunza.
- The tenacious loose play Hamilton Petropoulos – the best hooker in the league (A legendary 7 against the head vs UCC!)
- The fantastic goal kicking of scrum-half Ander Lanzagorfa.

2008 CISAA Champions

The 1st Lacrosse team had a very successful season in 2007-2008. We compiled a 17-2 record in regular season play and enjoyed many different team and individual accolades along the way. The season began with a three game tour of central New York with against local high school teams. We posted a 3-0 record south of the boarder, with the highlight coming in the very difficult final game against a tough Geneva High School at Hobart College. The Saints stormed back from 2 goals down to out score their ranked opponents 4-0 in a heated 4th quarter to pull away with a well deserved 9-7 victory.

Back on familiar ground, we had a 5-1 record in CISAA play with two hotly contested matches with archrivals St. Mike's. The CISAA playoffs progressed as expected with your Saints facing St. Mike's for the fourth time this season, and coming out on top for a third time, to win a third consecutive CISAA Championship. In between, we finished 3rd in our own tournament, and were champions of the Rick Passfield Memorial Tournament in Oshawa. Special note must be given to our Seniors: Mohammad Akbar, Jeff O'Neill, Bucky Pelosse, James Hogg and Dylan Baker. All five finish their St. Andrew's Lacrosse careers with multiple tournament championships, three CISAA Championships, and at least one OFSAA

At OFSAA, were left

Another successful season has come and gone. There are several highlights that I would like to touch on. Unlike any other sport in the CIS, we are merely two weeks into our season when we have our OFSAA qualifying tournament. This year's team comprised of 5 returning players and 5 new players; Adrian Eng, Jonathan Si, Barney Tong, Adrian Lau, Radissen Ramoutar, Boris Wong, Tanat Ratanakosum, Joshua Si, Jerry Chu and Jin Soo Lee had some very intense matches while we were determining who would be attending this tournament.

This year we had strong performances by our doubles teams of Jon Si and Barney Tong as well as Jinsoo Lee and Jerry Chu. Adrian Lau also played very well in singles. Our best performance was turned in by Adrian Eng who in his third appearance in this tournament, finally finished first in Men's Singles and was the first player to qualify for OFSAA in my tenure as coach. While in St. Catherines, Adrian had three very close matches at OFSAA but failed to qualify for the medal round. The regular season seems a little anticlimactic after the excitement of OFSAA, however the team persevered and finished the season undefeated, a perfect 8-0 in team play.

The CISAA championship tournament was held at Humber College and while we did not bring home the championship, the team battled hard and Barney and Jon as well as Jinsoo and Jerry both managed silver medals in both first and second doubles. All three of our singles players finished 5th, leaving us in third overall.

I would like to thank our graduating players Adrian Eng, Jonathan Si, Barney Tong, Radissen Ramoutar and Adrian Lau for their leadership and dedication. With five players returning next year, we are sure to continue with our recent successes.

I would like to thank each member of the Under 14 Badminton team: First Singles Seung Jin An, Second Singles Mark Choi, Third Singles Jack Park, First Doubles partner Evan Chen and Nathan Fan, Second Doubles partners Jeff Park and David Hsieh, as well as Christian Tam, Giorgio Govedaris, Henry Li, and Daniel Kim. What a wonderful time we had this season. At only two losses all season, we had a pretty successful few months. This team demonstrated a lot of initiative and I often found them practicing outside of the set practice time. We finished in a strong fourth place overall at our CISAA Championship at UCC with special mention to Jin, who came in third place in the First Singles seed.

A huge thank you goes out to my co-coach, Vince Pulla who dedicated many hours to this team. Vince was on the team each year while in the Middle School and is a natural at badminton and a wonderful teacher. He helped the team develop their strategy, pushed them to run faster and work harder, and coached them individually until he saw results.

This year's MIP award goes to a second-year player who jumped all the way from second doubles last year to third singles this year. He was focused and determined all season and, despite my suggestions to move him to first doubles, he knew that he was set on playing in the singles position this year. This player often gave encouragement to his peers and would use the Badminton conference to comment on the 'unbelievable' playing of his teammates, even after losses. He will make a wonderful singles player next year. Congratulations to our MIP, Jack Park.

First, an interesting bit of badminton trivia: Did you know? Badminton is the world's fastest racquet sport. According to the International Badminton Federation, the fastest badminton smash was by Chinese player Fu Haifeng, at 332km/h - that's 206mph. For comparison, the record for the fastest tennis serve is by Andy Roddick clocked at just over 150mph.

I doubt that we had any players hitting the shuttle at speeds like that but I would bet that the U16 teams dedication and commitment to improving would have shown smash speeds that had doubled over the course of the season. There were a record 12 teams competing at the CISAA tournament 6 of whom we had seen though the season. While as a team we finished in the middle of the pack it was worth noting that our first double team - Hyunwoo Park and Jason Kim - battled hard and narrowly lost a silver metal match.

In the final analysis it was a great season of development and we look forward to stonger tournament finishes in the future.

Allow me to start my speech by putting you in a baseball frame of mind by asking two somewhat cheesy riddles.
 1) What takes longer, running from first base to second, or from second to third? Second to third, because you have to go through a shortstop.
 2) Why is it so warm in a baseball stadium after a game? Because all of the fans have left.

This was the sixth year for the St. Andrew's Varsity Baseball program. After a few rather difficult and often humiliating years, I'm glad to report that we can proudly say that baseball is a legitimate and successful spring sport at S.A.C. I'd like to mention a few of the hi-lites from our season:

- 1) Our "Spring Training" trip to Cleveland in the middle of the April. We faced some pretty stiff competition in the States and this ultimately paid dividends later during our CIS season.
- 2) Winning the 3rd Annual St. Andrew's Baseball tournament. We faced two of the top pitchers in York Region in the final against Dr. Denison and came out victorious.
- 3) Rising to the challenge on the last day of our season. We had to sweep a double header against De La Salle and Royal St. Georges in order to finish 3rd out of 8 teams in the CISSA baseball league. Anything less than a sweep would have spelled an end to our season.

The task of earning a sweep became that much more difficult when we realized that we had left our only real bat at the Nichols school in Buffalo the previous day. You see, at the beginning of the season we decided to rely on our one good bat as the CIS league is moving to wood bats in 2009. Why spend another $300 on an aluminum bat for only one year? We always looking for ways to save Mr. Reid money so that he can buy more lacrosse balls. Consequently, for our two most important games of the season, we had to resort to using a bat that we often used to hammer bases into the ground. After a slow start in both games, we rallied to crush RSGC 17-5 and De La Salle 22-5.

- 4) We ended our season with an impressive 5 and 2 record, good enough for third place in the competitive CIS baseball league. This included big wins over rivals: Upper Canada College – in front of a large crowd during Springfest at UCC, and TCS where David Head struck out 13 out of the 15 batters he faced.

5) Our season came to an end with a 12-7 semi final loss to a powerful squad from Nichols school. Nichols went on to beat St. Mike's 6-2 to win the CIS championship.

There were a number of outstanding individual accomplishments this season. Our baseball website has all of the statistics, schedules, etc. You can access it by clicking on the Athletics link of our school website. Special thanks to team manager and statistician, Houston Meuser, for his tireless efforts during the season. The future of the program looks bright as only 13 out of 16 players will return next season. We are going to miss our three our three graduates who helped to put baseball on the map at St. Andrew's – Nick Saro, Mike Hale and Shane Samson.

On behalf of Mr. Biasi and Mr. Gurr I would like to sincerely thank all of this year's players. You should be proud of our accomplishments. Through thick and thin, this team was a pleasure to coach. Thanks for all of the laughs!

St. Andrew's has only ever won this league a handful of times in its 100 year history. Before our string of three championships to start this decade, we hadn't won since 1950. After last season's struggles, coach Gomes and myself brainstormed how we could better our chances, and all roads seemed to lead to improving the intensity, length, and focus of our practices. Watching neighbouring rugby work so hard for hours each day was a great inspiration, but long before the snow melted we were practising our skills in the gym and far away near the airport at Qazra. The players organized their own 3-on-3 indoor league during the winter. Increased exhibition games against CISAA and men's teams meant our large roster of 18 all got far more experience at batting and bowling than the usual 11 would in regular games. Added to this enthusiastic dedication, was a much improved sense of camaraderie, co-operation, encouragement, and unselfish drive. At every opportunity during games, our guys raced across the field to celebrate a wicket taken then to huddle together to inspire the next catch, run-out, or stump smashed.

Graduating students Andrew Strauss and Abhinav Raina worked hard to become our most devastating tandem, both breaking wickets with their speedy and unpredictable deliveries. In professional baseball, a pitcher with an ERA of 3 or less is considered first-class. In professional cricket, it's called "runs per wicket" and a bowler with a RPW of 30 would be among the best in the world. Both Andrew and Abhinav held opposing batters to less than 4 runs per wicket this season. Abhi also set a record for most wickets in a game, taking a total of 7 (out of 10 possible) against TCS. We also set a high water mark that day for least runs allowed, limiting TCS to only 7.

In the batting department, our usual weak spot, we still had our share of struggles but different players came through when they needed to in each game. Gordon Gray and Andrew had the highest averages with over 20 runs per innings scored. Their knocks of 38 and 37 were crucial. Co-captain Nameer Rizvi (who averaged 52 runs in exhibition play) had an extremely important stand of well over an hour, scoring 31 in our final match.

Our MVP award was won by our bowling wizard, Abhinav, whose skills, constant enthusiasm, and reliability were outstanding. (He also proved insurmountable as a batter, entering games late in the order and never got bowled out once!)

Everyone improved this year, but Nicholas Wiltshire won MIP recognition for demonstrating remarkable development right up until our final game, where two days before he was badly injured in a school soccer match. We're sorry for his pain, but trust he'll make a full recovery and dazzle the crowds next year on the pitch.

Coaches

Kyle and Gomes would like to congratulate and thank all the players for helping to make this season such a special one.

It was a tremendously successful season on the Jr. Track & Field team. The track team started with one team member in early April and the team expanded to 25 members by early May. We introduced a new event this year - that was somewhat safer for Middle School track & field athletes - the 'turbo javelin'. Team members eagerly took to this new event, and the turbo javelin took off. So did the team. We participated in four outdoor meets with year, with several outstanding performances. To name a few, Ross Hinds dominated U14 shot tossing well over one meter more than his nearest competitors. Francois Yoshida showing his speed at the U11 level winning the 150 m dash and Grant Jeong (U14) in the 100 meters, Dave Ashbury and Lyndon Zhao (U13) in the 400 meters, Jae Woo Kang in the U12 shot and turbo javelin and Andy Peng & Eric Grigorof who had a knack of throwing the turbo javelin, along with Muhammad Salyani in the U13 turbo javelin and shot put. So many kids improved - especially in the POD meet format. Congrats to all Jr. Track & Field athletes. DG.

This is the first season that St. Andrew's has fielded an Under 14 Softball Team. There were many eager players who signed up and our season was off to an enthusiastic start before we had even played a game! We had a few players who had previous baseball or softball experience, but a large number of boys had never played before. The greatest challenge that the team faced all season was to get enough practice time to teach skills to the players. In the early part of the season we faced snow covered fields. Once the playing season got underway we had a couple of games a week and practice time seldom seemed to be available. We won two out of our first three games and things looked promising. Unfortunately Taylor Joseph, our starting pitcher, was injured and we had to find a replacement in a hurry. Spencer Feeley accepted the challenge and moved from centre field to be our Number 1 pitcher for the last half of the season. Spencer assumed the pitching duties for the last two regular season games and our final tournament. We lost to UCC in the first game, beat Crescent in the second game, only to face UCC again in the consolation finals. In the final inning, down by five runs with the bases loaded and two out, the hard hitting Jacob Kearley came to the plate. We threatened to close the gap with UCC with one mighty swing of the bat. Unfortunately our runner on third base was so anxious to score that he couldn't wait for the ball to be hit and was called out by the umpire for having a "lead off" thus ending our chance at a comeback.

This year can be classified as a successful season for the Senior Golf team. With the change in timing of OFSAA Golf to the fall, we had our qualifying tournament back in September. Andrew Wallace represented the CISAA as one of the top two individual players in our league.

During the regular golf season, we competed in four league tournaments and finished second overall behind a very strong team from Crescent. The team average scores for the tournaments were 83 at Angus Glen, 79 at Piper's Heath and 82.5 at St. Andrew's Valley. The fourth tournament held at Peninsula Lakes was a match play event where the team won 9 out of a possible 12 matches. These results qualified the team to compete in the Championship tournament.

Held at Tangle Creek on a cold wet windy day, our championship drive came to an end when three of our players suffered their worst rounds of the season. We ended up finishing in 5th place out of 13 teams.

Jr. GOLF

The Junior Golf Team enjoyed its most successful season since winning the championship in 2003. This year's team featured returning players Scott Evans, Andrew Pacione, Danny McConnell, Devin Healy and Ben Pidduck, along with newcomers Spencer George and Kenny "The Digi Mon" Hilton. If a player has the misfortune of scoring over 100 in a tournament his fellow teammates take great delight in declaring to one and all that he is a "Digi Mon" (Sorry Kenny!).

It is a short season for the golfers with only four qualifying tournaments before the championship match. The boys finished the season in third place, easily qualifying for the championship at Tangle Creek Golf Club. Battling the elements through a nasty day on the course, your Saints put together their best performance of the season, finishing second by a heartbreaking two-strokes.

2008 marks the third year of the triathlon program at St. Andrew's. Although our season is not quite finished, this year has already been a very successful one.

Our team grew to nearly twenty triathletes and we hosted the first-ever CIS school triathlon a few weeks ago. Our boys dominated this event and have performed very well during all of their races throughout the year. It is quite clear that the sport of triathlon is growing within the CIS and in other school boards throughout Ontario. Once again this year, I've been very impressed with the skill level of our team and the dedication that they show. They are a great group of guys and I'm very proud of everything that they have accomplished. I very much look forward to seeing our guys race again this weekend in Milton and at our last race of the season just after Prize Day.

I would like to take a moment to say a special good-bye to our two graduates: Dong-Young Kim, and our three-year veteran and everyone's favourite magician, Hidetaka Ishii. The team wishes you two well next year and we hope that you will continue to race in the future. KR

We had a pretty good start to the season, easily beating the teams from Hillfield, Ridley, and Appleby. This gave us a lot of optimism. However, looking back, we now realize that they were the weakest teams in the league, and that stronger opponents were yet to come. We lost a close one to UCC by a score of 3-2, and we lost badly 5-0 to TFS and 4-1 against Crescent. At the Finals we suffered a bit of an upset, losing to APPLEBY 3-2, and got bumped-off to the consolation round right away, and never got a chance to play the stronger teams again. We finished the season ranked 5th out of 7. The highlight of the season has to be the performance of our 2nd Doubles. The pair of Spencer Powell and Martin Lo lost only one match the whole season. I'd like to thank all of my players. I am very pleased with the progress you made, and the enthusiasm you showed. I looked forward to our practice every day, and for that I would like to thank you.

Comment:
I don't know how to sum up my five years at SAC, there were just too many memories, from the Grade 8 Grad trip to Quebec, to the 2008 Formal. I look back on all the years and there is something I will always remember from each year including all the nights out, the lunch breaks, and even the occasional class. I'd like to give everyone a big shout out for all the good times we remember, or don't remember (this includes: ZECH, FARAZ, SIMPS, MATT, ALEX, BRINDS, O'NEILL, JOHN, LEON, JEFF HO and most importantly NICK NIKAHN). Comment: I remember walking through the gates in grade 7 and being awestruck by the campus. It was so much larger than any other school I had ever attended. Everything seemed larger than life: the Prefects, the school itself, the teachers. Now as I'm leaving St. Andrew's, I find that I still have that same feeling. St. Andrew's is a veritable cornucopia of talents, challenges and opportunities. I have talked to Grads from previous years and they all seem to say pretty much the same thing. While University has many more students and there are many more clubs and activities and things to do, you will always find yourself relying on the skills that you learned here. To this year's Grads, I would like to say thank you. I may not be on the best of terms with everyone, but my experiences here have been very memorable due, in part, to the dynamic class. To next year's Grads, some words of advice: Don't stress too much. Stressing out will only make the situation worse. If things get overwhelming, take a deep breath, relax, and try again when you're calm. Things will clear up.

Two years ago, when I first came to St. Andrew's College as a grade 11 student, I couldn't speak a word of English. Thanks to Nic Lamer, my roommate for two years, and all my other teachers who spent a lot of time in extra help with me, I will leave with one of the biggest riches on earth: being bilingual. I had a great time at SAC and all the connections I made will last forever. Over my two years I learned to grow as a man and leaving home showed me how to live independently. Comment: Everyone seems to say "Oh my God! The years have gone by so quickly."

Well, that just isn't true, and it isn't a bad thing as, after looking back, I can tell you nothing other than how involved this school has kept me for the past five years. I started with a seventy average and with the help of teachers and friends I managed to eventually enjoy all my activities and become a successful academic. If there is any advice I can give, it is to seek out those teachers in the school that have had such an influence on me; my advisor, friend, and personal champion; Mr. McCue, my passion instigators: Mr. Stewart and Mr. Gurr, my mother-figure; Ms. Chasson, imagination organizer; Mr. Paluch, and my first advisor, Mrs. D'Angelo. They have helped me enjoy all of my commitments and explore many new interests.

It's hard to recount, in a simple paragraph, all the things that have made life here enjoyable. I can say that I will never forget both Jeff Kay tripping over the rail of my slide in mid air and almost breaking his legs on the side of my pool, and Nick's incredible array of voice and character talents... Russell Peters has got nothing on you. To the guys that helped me get going in this school, MDZ and our first advisory group, that made Mrs. D'Angelo's year her best ever, thanks for a great first year. To the guys that made this year great, thanks Yan, Kyle, Raaf, Butler, Connor, Beats, Nick, Drager, and the grade 11s; I wish you all the success in the world.

Comment: Coming to SAC in grade 6, it's been a journey, I've shared my ups and downs. And now I am leaving this place that I've been at for more than six years. I've had some great times with the boys, tons of moments to remember whether it was me picking Beats out of a cab, teaching Reeler how to fight or sharing my answers with Shane Shin to get him his 98% average (you can pay me back later Bro). The late nights in Memorial with Strauss, Hale and Money Banks creating hell, and the finest April Fools to ever grace the halls of St. Andrew's College. The list of things, as it should be, is too long but will be remembered for a lifetime. Shout out to all the boys: Beats, Brown, the Hales, Gordi, Thak, Miller, Nick Nikon, Reels, Lebreze, Strauss, Connor, J, Lamer, Swiss... the list goes on. If my male modelling career doesn't work out, save me a spot at your jewelry store. Thak, even though none of us are ever going to step foot into your establishment. To the teachers; Mrs. P for keeping me in check, Mr. Kyle, Mr. Service, Mr. Swan: easily the best and most supportive teachers I have ever come across. And Trev you're just the Man. All in all, I'm going to miss this place for sure, but don't come asking me for donations. Drager, I can't believe you graduated, but shouldn't you be in a retirement home? Peace and love.

Comment: I can't believe I am graduating today. It feels like I came to SAC just a few days ago... what on earth am I doing here? Attending St. Andrew's College has been the most fulfilling and rewarding experience in my life. It was through these three years of trials, accomplishments, and triumphs that I truly found myself as a person, and that, in itself, has prepared me to move onto the next stage of my life. I had the opportunity not just to meet many great guys from all over the world, but also to have been guided by such dedicated and caring teachers. St. Andrew's has shaped me into an aspiring scholar, a responsible leader, and a well-rounded global citizen. Above all, it has provided me with a set of strong values and lessons that will guide me throughout the rest of my life. I now confidently step forward into the real world with great pride and satisfaction, and I will not be looking back. I would like to thank all my friends, fellow classmates, and faculty and staff members. I will always be indebted to the Andean Community for all it has given me, and I will always be a proud Andean.

Comment: Coming to this school in grade 9, I wasn't too sure about what to expect. I found a school full of great students and teachers, and a place where you can really excel in the things that you do. I'll take away many good memories from my time at SAC, from the long road trips to basketball games, to putting together the best drummer's fanfare the school has ever done. The Pipes and Drums has been one of my highlights during my time at SAC, including the 2 times we played at BMO Field. The Christian Fellowship was a great place to hang out every Monday night, and I want to thank all the guys that came out during those times. Thanks to all my classmates that shared the good times over the years, I'll remember everything from the noisy chemistry classes to the laid back drumming classes. I want to thank my parents from bringing me to SAC. At first, I wasn't fully appreciative of their decision, but looking back, it was one of the best choices to come here, and I wouldn't have wanted to go anywhere else. Good luck to all of you in the future, and remember to cherish the times you had at this school!

 Comment: I can't believe it's already been 4 years since I've come to this wonderful school and home. I still remember the first night of the orientation day in grade 9, when I had nothing in my mind but to fit into this school. I still remember the moments when I was a humble member of a junior band, intramural sport, volunteer event, and group of top scholars. However, today I'm standing as a Pipe Corporal of Pipes and Drums, MVP of Varsity Squash, President of CSC Council, and entering freshmen of Johns Hopkins University. What did I do last four years? I competed, team worked, strived, dreamed, and most importantly, enjoyed my school life. This was only possible because I came to St. Andrew's College, and I'm very thankful to my parents today and always. As the school mission statement states, my heart, spirit, mind, and body are ready to face the challenges in university and future life. I've not only developed into a complete man, but also a proud Andean, who will remember every moments of life in SAC. I finally want to thank Mr. Inglis, Mr. Rush, Mr. McGillvray, Mrs. Pries, all other teachers, and of course, my friends for presenting me such an valuable experience. Good luck everyone, and SACKA fighting!

Comment: Coming to SAC as a quiet student in grade eight, there was no way of knowing that it would have turned out this way. It was somewhat an interesting experience. I've had many good times at SAC, and it seems to be too much to fit in this comment. Nonetheless, it has been fun. Good luck to all.

 Comment: Ever since I came to St. Andrew's in grade 9, I was very excited to be in such a well-respected institution. At first, I was very timid and shy, but that soon changed with the amount of friends I made. I eventually came out of my shell, and started interacting with more people, whether it were my peers or teachers. St. Andrew's helped me strengthen the qualities which make up who I am, and ultimately has helped build my character to make me a better person. Although it has probably been the most stressful 4 years I have had in St. Andrew's, I wouldn't have rather spent my high school career at another school. St. Andrew's College is truly a special place, and it definitely isn't another ordinary school.

 Comment: Over the four years that I've attended St. Andrew's College I've seen a lot of change and growth within the graduating class and within myself. I've learned a lot about myself and have become a better person. We have come together as a group and accomplished so much, whilst continuing to discover new things and learn everyday. We are the leaders of tomorrow. I want to say thank you to everyone that has been a part of life at S.A.C., from the Class of 2007 to the Class of 2009, to the Faculty and Staff, and especially to the graduating Class of 2008. Special thanks go out to Jack for driving me to school everyday, and especially to Mr. Paolini and Miss. Thome for all their advice and guidance. I couldn't have survived without you two. Comment: Throughout my 7 years at SAC, I have grown tremendously and developed into the complete man, the well-rounded citizen. I have had so much fun and made many life long friendships here at S.A.C. Highlights include the many memorable trips I've had (Grade 8 Quebec City, St. Donat French Trip, Band Cruise), and the memorable sports experiences (Losing 72-2 in U14 Basketball, the Montreal basketball trips, winning CISAA championships, representing CISAA at OFSAA badminton). There are many people whom I wish to thank for making my time at SAC unforgettable. First and foremost, my parents, for sacrificing so much in order to send me to this fabulous school. I know you had doubts as to whether or not I would succeed but now you can forget about them! Also, thanks to my older brother, Sean, for helping and guiding me through my difficulties! To Ms. Auger who coached me badminton, was my advisor in Middle School, and taught me for over 5 years, Mr. Godkin, who coached me badminton for 3 years straight, and to Ms. Chasson, who not only taught me music for 7 years, but also gave me a lot of advice about life! Another special thanks to Mr. Giel for giving me advice and being there for me no matter the number of mistakes I made. I would also like to thank Mr. Roffey, Ms. Groves and Mr. Swan who helped me with my university applications, as well as all of my teachers and coaches who introduced me to some really key concepts in life and made me think differently about the world. I praise you all for that. The dedication of the teachers at St. Andrew's is fantastic. They really do care about their students. They do not just teach; they inspire. I would also like to thank the Macdonald House Housemasters: Mr. Galajda, Mr. K and Mr. Day. I couldn't have made it to this day without your assistance. St. Andrew's has influenced me in a lot of ways and no matter where I go, what I do and what I become, I will always remember, "Quit ye like men, be strong. Let all your deeds be done in charity".

Comment: What can I say? I have been at this "fine" institution since Gr.6 and although I have spent my fair share of time in the office, or in Sunday detention I can't say it has been a terrible experience. I have met way too many amazing people, students and teachers alike. Without my family and friends, I don't think I would have been able to keep coming back year after year. I would like to say thanks to all of the people who have helped me during my time at St. Andrew's, and would like to give a shout out to all of my boys: Straussy, Nikhan, JButler, Lebar, Reeler, Munro, Simpson, Faraz, Beaton, Dragnuts, Shaner, Bias, Stewyy, Servsauce, Sculaaa, God, Mch, CHECCCKK MATEEEEE!

Comment: Wow, finally made it through!! It has been a long and stressful journey since I arrived September 2004. I would just like to make a few shout outs to all of my island boiz from day 1, J Hop, Zech, Thak, Mac P, Jaffa, and Nicky.. my apologies to anyone else I missed out. Couldn't of made it this far without them yall. Def going remember all the missions we used to go through just to try reach a party haha.. Wish yall the best wherever you decide to go after leaving SAC. Especially my closest nyuckk JHop, hope you finish school so you can go back home n run tings at KFC haha... One thing for sure im gonna take away with me wherever I go in life is the responsibility, leadership and individuality I have gained through attending this prestigious school.. I personally think that after having been here for 4 years, I am ready to go out into the real world without any troubles. Also like to say thanks to all my teachers and coaches who helped me mature as an individual both in the class room and on the sports field throughout my career here. I would especially like to say thank you to Mrs. K who I will never forget and my best wishes for her and her whole family. Its bin a great time and hopefully see you all sometime in the future!

Being a second generation Andrean, I thought that I knew what I was getting myself into when I enrolled in the College in my grade 10 year; was I ever mistaken. St. Andrew's College has provided me with numerous experiences in the classroom, on the sports field, in the prefect room and on the parade square that have shaped who I am today. Memories created by these experiences will surely last a lifetime and for that I am forever thankful. I owe a resounding thanks to the Perrier's as leaving home for the first time as a 15 year old kid would have been next to impossible with out their care, guidance and support. I will never forget either of you as you have impacted my life on numerous levels. To my parents I must offer the most heartfelt of thanks as they have always believed in me and have sacrificed so very much to send me to this school which, at one time, wasn't really a possibility financially. For this my grandparents must also be thanked. I would also like to thank Mr. Staunton, Mr. Service, Mr. McCue, Mr. Biasi (even though you did everything in your power to lower my batting average) and of course Marnie for being supportive throughout my entire St. Andrew's career. Last but not least I'd like to thank my boys Butler, Beaton, Walldawg, Dragar (wear that necklace proud), Saro, O'Neil, Baker, Samson(s), Brownie, Houston, Frankie, Boyder, Bonner, Mclean, Sales, Phillips and Ball for some great experiences. To my crazy Frenchmen, JF and Lamer, let's do 400 deck push-ups followed by a 10 km run to Moxies... why not? To the rest of the graduating class, thanks for the memories. Hold your stick up high and your elbows even higher. #22

JEFFEREY HO

Comment: First of all, thank you God, thank you parents, thank you friends for just everything you've done for me. I wouldn't have made it so far without you all, so thank you! Now, its been such a blessing to come to SAC for four years and its certainly played a huge role in my maturing. I've had so many experiences here that goodbye for me, will certainly be painful. I've thought about what would be my most memorable experience here, and I've concluded it was a toss between getting arrested while filming Mr. Kimmerer's movie (DRIVE), any moment backstage with the SHARKS (u bunch of "pantising" homos), any time I've spent on stage, Battlefields (yee ak), and Ecuador ("Ohhh NICEEEE"). I want to give a shout out to some of the best friends I've ever met in my entire life. Ak, Siphut, Baby Chu, Turbo, Habi, DjWeddy, Ichiban, Winstannnnnnnn, BAHNEY, Drew and da tutoring crew, u guys are amazing and also extremely gay. You have stuck through with me thick and thin, and I hope with all my heart you guys only get the best for the future, and that we will forever remain friends... friends period, raddy/si it said friends... nothing more. Drew, thnx again for ur constant support through my growth as a Christian. I can't express my appreciation, Sharks, u boiz better keep it real as well. Best of luck to you guys, and I hope the best for you as well. Lastly AzN HoMebolz... HEY! Take care boys, its been an honour being ur emperor. I'll visit some time, and we better keep in touch. To all you guys/St. Andrews, God bless you all, best of luck in the future and I hope I'll see you all once again. (capt O'Neil/Baker/Rutley I hope I nv see you again, and my kids nv see you again...or your kids...haha, jks! I wish u guys the best and I hope one day you'll find it in your heart to accept azn people :))

JAMES HOGG

CONNOR HOUSTON

WILLIAM HYUNG

James has been with us for five years and recently enjoyed success with First Football, First Lacrosse, winning CIS AA and OFSAA Championships last year. An active member of Ramsay House, he contributed to Focus and will be remembered as an accomplished bagpiper. We hope that James will have an opportunity to continue his acting and music over the next four years when he attends the University of Ottawa.

Connor is an Andrean who has made great use of his one year here. A three term athlete in 1st Football, JV Hockey and 1st Rugby. Although his Memorial roommates are grateful for the weekly taxi service to Toronto, Connor has decided to continue his post secondary studies at Queen's University.

Although most notably a prominent scholar, William was also heavily involved in many music groups at the College and was the Wind Ensemble's Lead Alto Saxophone. He was the Editor-in-Chief of the School's newspaper, The Independent. William has been an advocate for the disadvantaged in a lot of community service, amassing over 400 hours. He has been working on publishing a guide booklet to help new immigrants to Canada. In the fall, though, he will be leaving for the U.S. - to study Arts & Sciences at Duke University.

My five years here at S.A.C has been amazing and I thank my family from the bottom of my heart for sending me here. Looking back into my grade 8 year just starting out and now looking where I am now, I feel like I have traveled from Earth to the Moon... by foot. The support my friends gives me is unbelievable and without them I would still probably be stuck in grade 8 for fifth year. I would like to thank Jeff Ho, Abhinav, Radissen, Dylan and many more. Faculty wise I would like to thank my current and past House Masters, Burton, Thorne and many other teachers who I got to meet but can't put here because of space... oh and Mr. Prezons (my advisor). Biggest highlights of my career here, were having the honour to be part of an amazing group of Prefects, leading the cadet parade at one point, the magic show that I'm just about to do for Focus, and that I'm actually going to Formal this year. S.A.C is not an ordinary place (wow now I'm saying this too) because of the endless opportunities offered, and how it magnifies the good you can do to yourself and the world. I just want to express that SAC is an amazing place and I hope you think this as well.

After four years at St. Andrew's College, Angad has over 400 hours of community service, ten times the required amount.

He was an invaluable assist to the First Cricket team, in helping with the tricky art of score keeping.

We wish Angad well as he heads off to The University of Western Ontario to study Science.

Comment: Coming to SAC in September 2004 as a quiet Grade 8, there was no way of knowing that it would have turned out how it did, it was an interesting experience to say the least. If I can remember the best times at SAC there seems to be too many to fit in this comment, but I will remember that graduating high school is the first step towards adult life, unfortunately!"

Buck, Brinds, and Connor, I just want to say thanks for the great ride. You guys stuck through a lot of stuff with me. Over my six years at SAC, I've made a lot of friends, and had a lot of memorable experiences. I would like to thank my parents who gave me a wonderful opportunity. I would also like to thank all the teachers and parents that helped me along the way. Thank you.

Comment: Before I came to this school, it was very hard for me to choose which one would be most suitable High School for me as a young Asian student among many good high schools I have searched. Yet, after spending my last two years of High School at Saint Andrew's College, I have realized that this school has chosen me for my own enrichment. Through out the years, SAC has allowed me to carry out all the talents I had and this deepened my personality physically, mentally and spiritually. Thanks to all the teachers I have met and those who I have not known very well but would gladly greet me on the hall way with the finest smiles and cheers, I am a blessed student. If God gives me second life to start with (means if I born again), I'd love to choose SAC again with no hesitation. Finally, after this long but short marathon, standing in front of SAC, looking at myself with graduation diploma, I see nothing has changed in the school but me. SAC has changed me from ordinary to extraordinary, inexperienced to seasoned and Korean student to international student. May God bless the school for its purpose.

Outside of his scholar status, Eric is a self-trained, high quality pianist and avid classical musician; he was a flutist in our wind ensemble and a tenor drummer in the Pipes & Drums, and a representative athlete on the championship squash team. He's also a rubics cube master - usually completing it in about a minute. Don't be fooled by his diminutive size either; Eric holds a black belt in Tae-kwon-do. In the fall, Eric will be heading to a Sciences major at McGill University

Four years has past since I became the member of Andrean society. The last four years has been very special time of my life. I came to the school as a young boy and graduating as a man ready to face the world. I like to thank all of my teachers especially to my advisor Mr. Paolini as well as my friends. I will always remember working on art overnight, playing soccer with fellow Koreans, Korean BBQ, Ordering food 365 days, Finch Jook Dol e, Minera's Owl (Gam Ja Tang), Young No rae bang, Bam sae Sool, Soban, Sung Jun's house, Endless Chimney, Stair ways to heaven, winning best company twice in cadet, and many more. I will be entering Parsons the School of Design in following September located in Manhattan New York City. However, when I get tired of living in a big city I will always come back to visit St. Andrew's College. Hak Kyo Ggeut Nat Da Assara ++

Comment: Time flies and I can't believe my two year career in SAC is coming to an end. I still remember my first day at SAC and I thought SAC is just an ordinary school. We have a big campus, and great buildings, but this was not new to me since my old school in Hong Kong was the same. Now, looking back, I feel foolish. The longer I stay at SAC, the more I understand that this is a special place. Students here are not only successful in their academic studies, but also participate in sports, music, leadership, cadets, etc. Most importantly, SAC is a community. Even the cleaning ladies, janitors, as well as the dining hall staff, are part of this community. When I first came to the school I did not realize that I would have accomplished so much. It turns out that I ranked very top in my class academically, and I founded the Aviation Society at the school. I have been given the opportunity to undertake leadership roles in the Photographers Club, Strings Ensemble and Cadets. I learned as much outside of class as I have in class. Last but not least, I would like to thank my friends and teachers who made my life at SAC enjoyable. I won't take the precious space to list everyone, since there are just too many. Thanks to my parents and God who chose this school for me. A short piece of advice for the students: SAC will prepare you well for university as well as the society. Treasure your time here.

Comment: Coming from MTL knowing no one was a challenge but once I got used to the St. Andrews and the way of life, made me love it. I made awesome friends like J-F, Power, Drager, Wallace, Toupin, Saro, Lessard, and thats just naming a few. The hockey team dominated two years straight, MPHL, CISAA back to back. I want to say thanks to Mrs. Perrier for everything, she practically became my second mom, I literally love her and also to my parents who made all of this happen. Mr. P as well, probably the best House Masters in the league. Thanks to all the teachers who taught me over these two years, Biasi, Scoular, Stewart, Perrier, Service, Day, Inglis, Paluch, Jones and MacDonald. Also Marnie, I can say that I love her too. I am going to miss this place! Have a good one, good day.

Comment: Four years ago, was my first time studying overseas and as a boarding student. Everything was so different from home (Hong Kong). SAC offered me a different level of competition in sports, academics and life. I still remember all the events such as first time lifting up a soccer trophy, winning an award for badminton team, beating UCC, singing in a church, first time in kilts etc. It was also incredible knowing all these new people from various countries. Only SAC could provide such a diverse community. But among these peers I would never forget Tim Wong, Howard, Evan, Eugene and Matt. Their appearance at SAC influenced me. Without them SAC wont be as entertaining as it would be. I truly wish all of you will have a successful career in the future no matter where you are and what you are doing.

Comment: Thanks SAC for the great experience that changes my life. Thanks Mr. McCue for all the advisory dinners and lunches and also promoting me as a lieutenant. Thanks to Mr. Burton for his support throughout the years.(I am pretty sure you are the only teacher that stayed up more often than me) Thanks Mr. Stewart for all the phone calls, but to be honest I liked Flavelle more before you came. Thanks Ms. Richer for the zero workload Calculus class. Thanks Mrs. Auger for the low AP-Cal mark, so I would actually try harder in university. Thanks Mr. Scoular for the great English mark and everything you taught. Thanks Mr. Joiner for changing my "paradigms". (The only thing I learned in world issues). Thanks Ms. Throne for the good chemistry mark, which I don't think I deserved. Thanks Mr. Services and his unit tests. Thanks to my brother for coming to SAC, or else I wouldn't be here. Thanks to everyone I met in the school, especially Thanks to the Wong brothers (Tim and Matt), Evan, Eugene, Denis, Bilal (who I already recognised as a Chinese). Also the Korean crew, Sean, Kyle, MJ and Seungmook. Without you guys, I can't imagine how I survived at SAC for 4 years. Last but not least, Thanks to my Dad for sacrificing so much to send me here, I will not let you down.

MITCH LEBAR

A likeable Laidlaw House Grad and an Andrean Elder's Club recipient, Mitch has contributed many hours of various community service. He has played high level hockey throughout the past seven years. He graduates the third in line of his family at SAC, and we wish him well as he takes a gap year to pursue his ambitions.

DAVID LEE

A proud four year Andrean and very able athlete, David has enjoyed all his rep sports, in particular his role on the Varsity Volleyball team. A lead member of the String Ensemble as a 1st Violinist, he also participated in the CISMf at Roy Thomson Hall. As a house floor captain, his housemaster appreciated him leading a tight ship. David will be entering the General Studies degree program at New York University in the fall.

Comment: Four years! It has been long and short. Didn't really like the school when I first came; SAC looked intense and hard compared to my junior high. This changed really quickly as I got to know the amazing teachers and friends in the school! Thanks to all those teachers who helped me so much - Numa, Jones, Galajda, Butcher, Auger, Shields, Inglis, Paluch, Ramon, Rush, Paolini, Perrier, the great band teacher Ms. Chasson and strings teacher Ms. Hickey and many more. I really had an amazing time in SAC - though I'm happy that I am finally graduating, I will really miss all the teachers and friends that I had!! Thanks to mom and dad who really helped me a lot to get here also. Best of luck to every single member of the class of 2008!! Thanks SAC!!

Comment: I still remember when I first attend to SAC in 2004. Time goes real quickly, and I become a Grad a way faster than I thought. I really enjoyed my life at SAC (of course, sometimes not...) and will never forget my memories. Especially many activities with Pipes and Drums are unforgettable. SAC's art program inspired and helped me to grow my artistic ability, lead me into a design school next year. My thanks to Mr. Paolini and Mr. Kimmerer, who taught me in art for last three years. They really encouraged me and guided me into a better artistic person. In my time in St. Andrew's, I realized that so many opportunities were given to me. I enjoyed some opportunities but still regret that I didn't enjoyed every opportunity. Any how, school is OVER!!! Thanks to all my friends in the class of 2008 - obviously Korean bros, Chinese bros and others. Good luck to you all in at university. Let us all become a great people and see you at alumni meetings in the future (I will bring the Ferrari) ASSA~

ANTHONY LIM

Anthony has been at St. Andrew's since grade 7. He has enjoyed participating in a variety of activities here: membership on the Arts Council, the Student I.T. Committee, the Wind Ensemble and as a Writing Center Coach. He also enjoyed his SAC Outreach in the jungles of Ecuador. Next year, he will be on the more open prairie at the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign.

WINSTON LIN

A three year Andean, Winston enthusiastically followed his each and every whim. Active and energetic, he has been manoeuvring in FOCUS Festival of the Arts, in Chess and in ball hockey. Winston is also an emerging media artist. He will no doubt enjoy the scenery in BC as he heads to UBC's Okanagan campus.

Piano playing, singing, and composing independently. Drama Prize 2006, C.M. Foster Award for the Arts 2007.

Comment: I first came to SAC straight from Hong Kong 3 years ago, I did not know whether my level of English could pass me in a course like drama. And now, I am enrolled at Tisch as a drama student! Sure the change that took place in my time here was more drastic than a "huge" can describe! Although I went on a relax plan towards the end, I spent 8 out of 9 terms at SAC rushing from the morning chapel service to AP classes, then dashing to the dining hall for a sandwich and then wait for Mr. Scouler's next big idea in his vintage room with vandalized wooden desks, then staying in the band room for Ms. Chasson's engaging personal anecdotes as well as Musicfest rehearsals, and yet, leaving early for a DECA meeting with Mr. Giel before running back to Kelchum for a dance scene's rehearsal. Sure I had a wonderfully stuffed schedule for most of my time here! Now I should stop and start thanking people! Mom and Dad... your 3x40 grands are... well... at least I graduated to a fine uni where its even more expensive! Mr. Scouler, I don't know what I'd be doing now without you exposing me to a dimension where all the world's a stage. Ms. Chasson: Sorry for never taking music! A huge thanks to all non-mentioned faculty members. Finally, and most importantly, kudos to the crew of amazin' "FOBS" for life support (you know who you are), and special thanks and best of luck to Class of 2008! May our paths cross again in the years to come!

GAELAN MACKENZIE

Arriving two years ago, Gaelan has emerged as a top academic here. He was nationally ranked in the U of T Biology Competition. Outside the classroom he was in the Robotics Club, and was the Lead Peer Editor in our new Writing Centre. He was Editor of and contributor to the Independent and the Literary Magazine. A member of JV Hockey and Volleyball, he was also in the Wind Ensemble. Gaelan has decided on attending McGill next year.

I have been through a lot through my time here and couldn't do it without my nyucs....ahhhh...is that Hale?, Jhop (drop some more fresh rhymes yo), Pearce, Thak, Nicky, Jaffal, Pyan, Hamma, Mingy, and Mamou....da list could go on so my bad if I left some one out you all are some nice peeps. I had a good time playing sports here at the school for sure thanks to all the coaches. The school best prepared me with leadership I would say, I never was really the one to step up but now that's different. Also, biggest thanks to my mom for being there for me all the time and my sis too of coarse (R.I.P. Dad) ...P.S. cuz im sure it wuz health thooooo...ahhhh fake it back twice...but everyone knows what is goin on yesssssss.....PEACE SAC!!!!

Comment: Four years, and out of no where it's over. I'm happy to be getting out of here but a lot of good times here with the following homeboys; Munro, Parks, Stefan, Abhi, Roman, Butler, G.Gray, Cheski and even you Jeffreey! Looking back at the times here, it's hard to find a bad time which was more significant than even the lesser of the best times. In all honesty, I'll miss the school and all the good people here, some of you guys were like brothers to me, knocked sense into me when I acted like an idiot and I respect you guys for it. Finally, to Class of '08, I wish you all the best of luck -- and remember, I'll beat Omar the second time around.

SCOTT MUNRO

This is my fourth and final year at SAC, and they have been the four most life changing years of my life. My advisor, Mr. Cowell, my friends, and my family have made it a lot more enjoyable, but it is SAC as a community that has made the biggest impression. I have a very good high school experience thanks to SAC and all of the opportunities it has presented to me, such as the Battlefields Tour, and the trip to Ecuador, which were two of the greatest experiences I have ever had. SAC has been great, and I look forward to coming back to visit in the near future.

NICK NIKAHN

After four years of studying here, Nick rose to the Head of Smith House. A popular and pleasant mature young man, he has been rewarded for his academic efforts this year. Interested in many academic areas, Nick has decided to pursue a Social Science degree at the University of Toronto.

STEFAN NOEL

JEFF O'NEILL

CHAN MOON PARK

Stefan joined SAC in grade 9. He has enjoyed his time here, and made valuable contributions to Senior X-country and Track & Field teams. He has contributed well over 100 hours of community service. Although he received several offers from Scotland, including the universities of St. Andrews and Edinburgh, Stefan is looking forward to the quiet life down east at Mount Allison next year.

Nick Names: O'Neill, Jonie, O, Legend
Accomplishments: Prefect, 6 CISA Championships, 1 OFSAA Championship, Captain of JV Hockey, Captain of Lacrosse, Company Sergeant Major (Smith).

Comment: Five consecutive years of pure enjoyment. This is what comes to mind when I think about my time at St. Andrew's. From grade 8 till grade 12, every year has been a year to remember. It is a chapter in my life that will stick with me forever. Most people write about the good times and the bad, but for me they have been all good. The sports teams I have been a part of are what made this time such enjoyable. First football running over UCC in a 100 year rivalry, JV puck taking the title home in '06, and First Lacrosse winning the first ever OFSAA for high school field lacrosse. These are all the times that will stick with me. My growth as a student and a leader have also been invaluable, and all because of SAC. Becoming a prefect was a highlight of my career here, signifying my growth into a leader. Even with the end of such an illustrious career, I look forward to my years to come at McGill and further on with a bright smile and a positive attitude. Thank you to everyone from teachers to buddies for making these 5 years the best they could possibly be.

Comment: Looking back to my grade 9 years in pictures, I see that I have grown physically. I was younger, shorter, shyer, and maybe cuter. Comparing now and then, I feel I have come a long way since grade 9. I've met many people, and I thank all of them for helping me grow and mature. I've made many friends, and I thank them all for the help and fun they gave. Finally, I want to thank the school, although I personally feel the tuition is still expensive, for giving me various opportunities for my growth.

Activities & Accomplishments: Ramsey House, First Hockey, Ramsey Assistant Head of House

Comment: Although I have only been here for three years and have not contributed as much as I could have during my stay, I have enjoyed every minute. If I had to do it again I would become more involved, but I am certainly not disappointed with the way it turned out. As I sat in The Gallery on the first day listening to music, a kid piped up and asked me what I was listening to and we ended up in a quasi-intelligent conversation. He, as well as a few others, have become very close friends and I want to say thanks to , Hamad, Scott, Stefan and James for all the jokes and good times. Best of luck with all your endeavours if we lose touch. Thanks to my parents for the $100 000 that could have easily gone to some house renovations and a new car or two. It wasn't just the money, thanks for supporting me when I struggled to find the right path. As for teachers, few have left quite the impression that Waldo has. Thanks Mr. Walden for not giving up on me when I it seemed like all hope with me was lost. Also, Mr. McHenry, Mr. Josselyn, Mr. Te Bokkel (even though he is gone) and of course, although it may come as a shock to many people, Mr. Kimmerer. Thank you for helping me harness my creative output. In closing, if I can afford it, I'm putting my kid through all the hard and great times I went through at SAC.

Kevin joined St. Andrew's in grade 9. An active young man, he played JV Soccer and varsity squash. A prominent musician, he was a first flutist in the Wind Ensemble. Kevin has amassed well over 100 hours of community service, and was a Warrant Officer in the Cadets. We wish him success next year at the University of Washington in Seattle.

Activities & Accomplishments: Prefect, Multicultural Society, Residential Life Council, Mac-House Captain, Fall Play (lead role), Focus Play (lead role), various sports teams, Academic Merit Award, Slam Poet Champion, Cadet Officer, Lieutenant of Training Company.

Comment: Want to say a humungous thank you to the Pemsers for helping me out so much since grade 9 and having my back in every situation I was in, even if it was bad. You two really made my experience at SAC something I will remember. Mr. Biasi, my advisor you are the man! I wish everyone in my graduating class the best of luck, wherever you end up next year. Big up and blessed to all my Tuggz and Shottas in the school. One!

Comment: I never thought that I would be graduating the person I have become. The confidence that SAC has instilled in me has allowed me to step up bravely to any challenge. Whether it was on the sports field, standing on the quad for cadets, working harder and harder in the classroom, or being completely ready for the next stage in my life. I am proud to say that I am an Andean. My parents are Andeans to because SAC has been a way of life for our family for 6 years. They attend every sports event in SAC attire and even our dogs wear the Red and White. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the most precious gift a boy could ever have, "an education at St. Andrews". I would also like to thank some of the faculty who has helped me through my years at SAC. Gursy, Biasi, JMac and Mc H for the good times, Shrimpton for everything he has done for me, including football. Service and Cowell for patience and support. Adam and Claire Kowaltchuk are two people who have made a difference in my life and whose friendship I will always treasure. If I could give the younger guys any advice, it would be to do what you can to help the people around you. You will gain respect by doing so and you will see it pay off as you grow through the years. The more effort you put into things at this school, the more you will get out of it, but have as much fun as possible every single day!

Comment: Its hard to believe that its been seven years since I first came to this school. From the moment I walked through the gates of St. Andrew's I have become a different person. I am proud of who I have become over the past seven years. It has been a great year, Prefect, Alpine Ski Captain, Santa's SAC Charity Drive, they have all created memories that I will remember for the rest of my life. I still can't believe that seven years have passed, and I am truly going to miss it here. SAC has been a big part of my life, and its going to be hard without it. A shout out to my best friend and roommate Patrick, I don't know how I survived two years with you but its been the best time of my life, thanks bro. I'm going to miss late night basketball with the guys, Zack, Nitin, Matt, Alex, and John. I know I fouled a lot, but it was a great time. I'm going to miss it a lot. And finally thanks to all the guys in Flavelle Shane, Adarsh, Max, James, and anyone else I've forgotten. It's been the time of my life, thanks guys.

Comment: St. Andrew's College changed me. As I graduate, I reflect back on everything and everyone that has made a difference. I want to thank my family, for being so supportive, and always staying by my side, no matter what mess I got myself into. I love you guys. I want to thank my friends, who have stood by me through thick and thin. You are the ones that shaped my time and experiences here. I want to give shoutouts to some of my people, ZM, DB, JS, DL, JB, TB, AL, MH, NT, JH, HP, MA, BP, DS, NS and of course...the great KSmith! there are waaay too many of you so sorry if I missed any! If I could go through all the names of all the people that I love and respect, the list would be too long, but you all know who you are, so I don't really need to say it. You are all my boys, and I'm going to miss you, and I hope for the best for all of you. Peace, love, respect.

ABHINAV RAINA

PATRICK RICHARD

Comment: After 6 years at St. Andrew's College, winning the CIS AA championship and being selected as the team's MVP were crowning achievements for Abhinav. Other accomplishments include being this year's Award of Excellence recipient and the Model UN Co-President the past two years. Abhinav's passion for cricket and debating has certainly contributed to his achievements. A solid student, Abhinav has received several offers and has decided next year to attend the University of Toronto.

Comment: Two years have flown by and from September 4th 2006, it has been a non stop ride. SAC has made me a person even my parents did not even realize. The growth that I experienced is truly a testament to this amazing school. It is hard to put these feelings into words. Every individual in the community has had some effect on making me the person I am today and I must send my most heartfelt thanks to my family who have always stood by me no matter the distance between us. Thank you to Miss Silcox and Miss Julien, who brought me here and always supported me. I also have to thank my advisor, housemaster and teacher, Mr. Inglis, who took the chance on a loud, skinny, little islander and put his faith in him. To my friends, thank you for patting me on the back, picking me up and even giving me that leg up. Finally, I want to leave my motto behind for any student who reads this. "No Regrets"! This school is an amazing place that will give you opportunities and experiences that you could not dream of. If you seize these opportunities then you will feel as I feel as the end approaches. I know you will have "No Regrets"!

Comment: So, my 3 Years at SAC were interesting. Working to achieve my goals of leadership and involvement at school, it has finally come together in my last year. Becoming Head of House in Mac, the Regimental Sergeant Major and a technician in Focus, have accomplished what I was looking for. Being surrounded by 50 little kids, made me realize, that I'm happy that I'm not planning on having any kids for a long while. I'd like to thank Mr. Biasi, for the most entertaining and chilled class. Also, Mr. K for believing in me and not thinking I was vegetating in his class all year. Thank you.

I'm looking forward to University and the freedom of doing what you want on your free time.

 Comment: My four years at St. Andrew's have been the best of my life. I have had far too many unforgettable memories to recount them all, one that stands out was the Battlefields Trip in 06, unreal. All the school events, Homecoming, Springfest, everything made my experience here stand out in my mind. Boys, its been sick, good luck at university or wherever you're headed to for the next few years.

Jonathan joined us this year from his home Province of Quebec. He enjoyed his life in Flavelle House and the chance to learn some Spanish from his roommate. He enjoyed the many roads trips as a goalie in 1st hockey. We wish Jonathan well as he considers his options for next year.

A thoughtful and intelligent young man, Geoff started his high school career at St. Andrew's College in grade 9. He has been involved in First Football, has completed over 80 hours of community service and has a passion for science. After our university visits to Halifax last year, Geoff has decided to pursue a Bachelor of Science degree at Dalhousie University.

This is Shane's second year at St. Andrew's College. A keen football player and Captain of the First Team. Leadership accomplishments include Flavelle Platoon Commander and Assistant Head of Flavelle House. He has enjoyed that the House has been so close to his classes. Shane has enjoyed the team spirit of the SAC football team.... although in the fall Shane may have a different option when he attends the University of British Columbia and plays again ex team members, such as Patrick Yan.

Comments: Being away from home was hard, but I found a new home at St. Andrew's especially in Memorial House. All the April Fools pranks will be engraved in my memory for years. I would like to thank Mrs. Perrier and Mr. Perrier for everything they did for me during these two years. Being French was also hard, but I joined the famous French Connection consisting of: JF Boisvert, Nic Lamer and Tim Drager. We lost Ringuette and Momo, but added new rookies to it: Frank Sciortino, Francois Toupin and Ben Power. Mr. Biasi, Mr. Gurr and Mr. McHenry changed my vision of baseball. They made me come to the conclusion that baseball was a joke. I will always remember Hale, Brown and the others making fun of me when I was yelling, "Ome" instead of "Home" during baseball games. My experience at St. Andrew's was tremendous from sports to friends. Football was exciting and challenging even after heartbreaking hard-fought battles on the field. I will always remember my two years at St. Andrew's College and finally feel like an Andrian. Two years ago I made a decision that I will never regret.

A 3 year Andrian and top academic, Calvin also joined the victorious Varsity Squash team, and played in the Cadet Band as a tenor drummer, and in the wind ensemble as a clarinetist. He is highly ranked nationally in Computer Science competitions, and was co-Founder of SAC's Programmer's Club. As one would expect, Calvin received many university offers, and was among four graduates this year admitted to the University of California at Berkeley. He will start in their Engineering faculty in September.

Comment: The 3 years that I have spent in St. Andrew's College were impressive. This school gave me ambition, opportunity, and vision. I could always develop my self in this place, and I hope other students can have an opportunity to develop themselves. I will always watch and help this School in the future.

SHANE SHIN

With confidence, I can say out loud that my life at SAC will be essential for my future. SAC has given me opportunities to experience and learn in characteristics that I cannot learn from home - from my family, Friendship, passion, devotion, and confidence. All of these imperative features that I have gained from SAC will allow me to move one step forward in my life. SAC has enriched my life in every possible way, ranging from academics to personal characteristics. My involvement in community service has helped me to be closer to the Well-Rounded Man - our school's motto. Participation in sports and club activities has taught me that only when mind, body, and spirit are balanced, I can take valuable lessons. By excelling in academics, I have learned how to dedicate myself and how to devote myself in my task, or priorities.

Truly, my experiences at SAC for the last three years (since Gr.10) will shine my pathway like a light house on the shore. With these memories and lessons, I am confident that I can always succeed. There have not been any regrets for choosing SAC for my high school, and there will not be. SAC will be forever alive in my life.

Comment: Stepping into the school for the first time in 2002 as a grade 6, I did not know what expect from SAC. Now 7 Years later, I can sometimes see myself in the middle school uniform, or marching in the cadet greens while wearing a prefect tie or officer tunic. Becoming a prefect was my greatest success in my lifetime at SAC. It summed up all the work I put into the school. However I would not be here without my parents. I wouldn't have made it through the school without the amazing teachers here at SAC, specifically Mr. Cowell, Ms. Thome and Ms. Pernier. Lastly I will always remember the friends I made here, homies for life. I will dearly miss the 7 years at S.A.C. from the jokes in chemistry class to the annual Carol Service. It has been a great experience I will always remember.

My time at St. Andrew's was spent well, looking back on all the fun times. St. Andrew's really is a special place, I guess I have to thank my parents for paying the bills, my teachers for teaching me, but mainly my friends for keeping boarding life interesting. I wish all of you the best. Thanks for the memories.

Comment: I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my teachers who have made a huge impact in my life: Ms. Thome, Mr. Inglis, Mr. Scoular. Two years have gone by with a blink of an eye. I have developed friendship bonds that will never brake, especially with the guys in the Tutoring Conference. We have each other's back in everything. Although ten years down the road I might forget how the campus may look like, I will always remember the people who made a significant difference in my life and how they shaped me into the person I am today.

It was an interesting experience.

Comment: When I arrived at SAC in Grade 11 I had no idea what to expect. It was a completely different environment then I had grown accustom to. Little did I know thanks to the overwhelming support of my parents and family, for granting me this opportunity, I would grow and mature more in my two years at this place then I had in the previous sixteen years of my life. A special thanks to them: Mom, Dad, Mitchell and Connor for always being there. I leave this place now with many friends who will always be a part of my life...to my boys from the past two years, Dragnuts, Beaton, Halesauce, Houston, Ringer, Momo, Jacobsen, Hennick, both hockey teams, and everyone else thanks for all the recklessness, fun, and jokes. From all the trips to Moxie's and parties, to all the chill sessions in the dorms, to the trip to Scotia, I will never forget any of it. Thank you to all the faculty and staff, for always being willing to help me out, and for surprisingly always being able to put up with all the shenanigans. Special thanks to Mr. Staunton, my advisor and housemaster Major McCue, my housemaster Stew, and to Mrs. P, Mamie, and Jmac for two great years in the rink and on the road. Finally, thanks to that one person who made my graduating year that much better, you know who you are. I walk away from SAC today very confident that the leadership I learned at this place will lead me to success in all aspects of life.

Comment: It has been four years since I came to this school and finally graduating in the Class of 2008 student. I cannot imagine how much I have developed in my high school career. There were people in the school who helped me become successful. Especially Mr. Paolini, my advisor who always encouraged me to not to give up and Mr. Inglis, my Housemaster who has never let me down so that I was always kept on track in my studies. I will always remember St. Andrew's College from having memorable experience for the last four years by making me into a well-round citizen.

Comment: St. Andrew's has definitely been an experience of a lifetime. My two years as an Andean has given me lifelong friendships, leadership, and a strong sense of teamwork that I will never forget. I thank all my teachers and my advisor, Mr. Kimmerer, for all their hard work and dedication put forth in creating such an excellent opportunity and a friendly learning environment. Above all, I would like to thank my parents for their sacrifice to send me to such a great school. Two years of time sure passes by fast! Thank you SAC for all the fond memories!

After six years here, Timothy graduates a proud Andean. He has been a Varsity Badminton Doubles player, member of the Drama Society Tech Crew, involved in community service Food Banks and Park Clean ups (but how about your room, Tim!). Always willing to share his great sense of humour, his housemaster got used to contacting him through his seemingly surgically implanted cell phone. Next year, it's over to Boston University.

Comment: Time passes fast here, without knowing it, you're on the verge of graduating. It's not always easy here, you really do have to find your own way, become involved and find your passion in life. Mom, I love you, thanks for all the love and support you have given to me throughout my entire life. To Alex Pearce, my first real Jamaican friend thanks for showing a whole different culture, Top Shotta. Shane Samson my main homie and my boy from the east, keep it real in B.C. My closest friends Hamilton Petropoulos and Zeck Miller thanks for being there for me whenever I needed you, both of you keep it going- I know you'll both be great one day. Max Bauer, keep it rolling kid- I'll be your biggest fan one day (QB Brown University '2013). Gurr and Shrimpton thanks for having my back for the past four years. Keep the word Silver in check with the football team, make sure they play with Silver every time they strap on a SAC football helmet. I can truly say that the best times of my life so far were the fall practices, being with my friends and playing the game I have learned to love. Look for Patrick Yan on the OUA football site next year! Ill be tearing it up!

MACDONALD HOUSE

As a first-year Housemaster, it was great to have such a solid group of house leaders around me. Special thanks goes out to my Head of House, Andrew Wallace, who truly did lead by example, and my assistants, Shane Samson and Howard Lau. The traditions and camaraderie instilled in the boys of Flavelle during Mr. McCue's days are alive and well, as evidenced by our "evening march" around Sifton House and Memorial House during our preparation for the Cadet Inspection! It was a great year, boys.

Thanks for the memories! Mr. S.

Laidlaw House

The 2007/2008 academic year marked the first year with Mark Service as housemaster of Laidlaw House. The year started off with great house leadership and spirit, raising almost $17,000 towards the overall achievement of raising $50,000 by St. Andrew's College for the construction of the new regional cancer care and research facility at South Lake Hospital. The year also finished on a strong note as Laidlaw house won the best platoon award, as well as the best dayboy house award thanks greatly to the help of Mr. Costanzo. Congratulations to all members of Laidlaw House for a successful year!

Ramsey House

This year Ramsey started off as the defending champions of the Houser Cup. It has been our goal to win this two years in a row and so far we have started off with a bang. From a victory in the cross country run to top placements in house competitions we have been keeping up with the tradition. This years Head of House Stefan Noel with Assistant Head of House Jeffery Park have ensured that the stomachs of each member of Ramsey House have been consistently filled with vast quantities of pizza.

SMILING

The 2007-2008 school year has been a very successful one for Smith House. Through a combination of clan competitions, fundraising initiatives, and other school spirit events, we have enjoyed a variety of exciting and rewarding experiences. The annual Terry Fox Cross Country run last October demonstrated that many of our boys are in excellent physical condition, while many others are not! Several other clan competitions throughout the year, not to mention our house barbeques and pizza lunches, have brought us all closer together and emphasized how fortunate we are to share our unique House community.

Perhaps the highlight of the year was the fundraiser for the Southlake Regional Cancer Centre. Both the Middle and Upper Schools worked incredibly hard to raise money for this worthy cause, and we in Smith House were exceptionally proud to have raised the most money in the entire school. The Christmas Toy Drive provided another opportunity for our boys to demonstrate their philanthropic ambition, and once again they came through with flying Andrean colours!

A special thank you goes out to our Heads of House, Nick Nikahn and Geoff Ruytenbeek, for their leadership and dedication to the House, as well as to our prefects Taylor Brown, Jeff Ho, Jeff Kay, and Jeff O'Neill for their consistent willingness to serve as role models for the rest of the House.

As is so often the case, the whirlwind of school events, including the annual St. Andrew's Haggis Feast, the Christmas Carol Service, and the Cadet Inspection, have caused the year to pass far too quickly. Nevertheless, it has truly been a memorable time for all of the boys in Smith House.

Debating

Middle and Upper School Debate and Public Speaking enjoyed another active year. In the fall, senior students competed in our 2nd Annual Impromptu Speaking contest with Ryan Cole (grade 11) taking top honours. For the first time in its eight-year history, the MS Rupert Ray Impromptu Public Speaking trophy was one by a grade 6 boy, Alex Bowlin.

Over 25 boys in the MS attended weekly Tuesday Arts debating sessions throughout the year, while over a dozen US boys sparred in Monday practice debates. Those preparing for upcoming competitions also met during lunch hours.

After a warm-up debating tourney at St. Clement's, St. Andrew's attended the IISPC (International Independent Public Speaking Competition) held at Queen Anne's Girls' School in Reading, England. As 2006 hosts of this prestigious event, St. Andrew's was able to field two teams: Radissen Ramoutar, Abhinav Raina, and Hamad Mirza, along with Devin Cassidy, Kashtin Fitzsimons, and Will Egi, each performing in any 3 of 9 events across 5 days of intense competition. Our boys focused on two styles of debate, (Cross-Examination and Parliamentary,) and four other public speaking events: Impromptu, Extemporaneous, Interpretive, and Persuasive styles. Each one had its particular challenges. Persuasive demanded a 12-13 minute memorized "problem/solution" thesis, while Extemporaneous required contestants prepare only 30 minutes to deliver up to 6 minutes on such weighty topics as: "Is humanitarian intervention an oxymoron?" "Is intellectual property overprotected?" and "Is Zionism racism?" among others. Top Saints' results were secured by Radissen (4th in Persuasive), Devin (7th in Extemporaneous), along with Hamad and Abhinav (7th and 11th placings in Cross-Ex). The competition was generally of an excellent calibre with extremely close finishes. This was born out by Radissen, where despite averaging over 88% from all 18 of his judges in 6 performances, he placed 29th overall. Averaging only 2% higher would have placed him firmly in 5th.

In the days preceding, the team visited many of London's most famous Museums, Art Galleries, and historic buildings, along with guided tours of the Thames River, Tower of London castles, parliament, theatre district shows, then beyond London out to Windsor Castle (home of the Royal family), Stonehenge, and down into the 1st century Roman architectural remains excavated under the remarkable resort town of Bath. Most impressive was the excellent elocution and entertaining manner of the various tour guides, easily able to command the attention of crowds of over 200 without the aid of electronics or modern gimmickry. True British sense of humour shone through at every turn - we won't soon forget commentary associated with seeing King Henry's magnificent body armour (replete with exaggerated codpiece) being referred to as "an early English foray into psychological warfare".

SAC sent 2 two-man teams to the first of three Fulford League Debate tournaments at UCC. The resolution was: "This House would allow stem-cell research", which made for some very informative and compelling arguments on both Proposition (Government) and Opposition sides. In the senior division, Abhinav and Bobby McDonald were able to use their scientific research to full effect, scoring well in all three rounds. In the junior (grade 9-10) ranks, Christian Julien and Kashtin argued from both a scientific and ethical perspective, with Christian rising to achieve a 2nd place citation and the team placing 3rd overall.

In January, Ryan Cole led the charge for our 6-man SAC squad at CDS's annual provincial debate and public speaking tourney. He placed 1st overall, on the strength of a 1st place finish in Radio Newscast, and a 2nd place result in Impromptu Debating. On the strength of his partner's (Devin) scores, their team placed 2nd overall, just behind St. Clement's School. Strong marks in the 90's and 80's were recorded by all other Andrean competitors (Hamad, Abhinav, Kashtin, and Sebastian Biase).

At St. Clement's, (host of the 2nd Fulfords) our two teams competed against 20 other major independent schools from across Ontario, debating "Be it resolved that unchecked economic growth leads to society's demise" as well as arguing for/against the impromptu topic of "Mirrors are humankind's best invention". Ryan, partnered with Hamad, achieved 1st overall in the senior category and their team came 3rd. In the junior division, William achieved 2nd place overall, and with his team-mate, Andrew Pitkin, placed 3rd in team.

In February, our team crowded the podium at the 2nd annual Villanova PS tournament. In the Persuasive category, SAC swept the standings with top 3 finishes: Radissen (last year's over-all champion), Ryan and Christian. Combined with his 1st place finish in Impromptu, Christian won over-all top honours, and SAC: 1st place team certificates. As well, Ryan, Radissen, and Kashtin all acquitted themselves admirably in delivering humorously entertaining Impromptus of their own.

Last year, SAC claimed the prize of the Senior Fulford Coaches Cup which recognizes the school whose team has the highest average from the 3 tournaments in Junior or Senior divisions. In the spring, we traveled to Ridley College for the 3rd and final day of Fulford League competition. The resolution question before them was "Is collectivism superior to individualism?" After weeks of intense preparation and discussions, SAC felt ready to combat other schools on this weighty issue. At the end of the day, in the Junior categories, Devin achieved 4th place overall individually with "newbie" Justin Moryto (Grade 8) following up with 12th place. Their combined scores landed them as the 3rd best Junior team. In the Senior Category, Radissen placed 7th with Adam Moryto (11) finishing 11th. Their combined scores earned them a 2nd place overall team finish in among the more than 20 schools competing. SAC just missed taking home the Coaches Cups with 2nd place overall in the Senior division this year and 3rd in the Junior division.

At the end of April, we prepared nine boys to compete at the tourney at BHS in Toronto. Despite having five senior members of the competition within the week leading up, SAC sent a 4 men to compete at this highest-level event. First time (grade 9) amazingly won 2nd place trophies in two out in the Junior Division. Christian, moved up into the 3rd place hardware for his stellar efforts. Scoring percentiles, but missing out on podium finishes

Nora McRae PS unexpectedly pulling out proud but small group of competitor Jerome Biroo of his three categories older Senior group, won admirably into the 80 were Kashtin and Sebastian.

Coach Kyle wishes to thank all members of the SAC Speaking Society, and looks forward to encouraging continued efforts through the many events offered next year. Students are already busy preparing for the ultra-competitive International ISPS tourney (held over a week at TCS this coming October) with hopes of qualifying for next spring's World Championships (held successive years in England 2009, Latvia 2010, and Pakistan 2011).

SASSAW MALAWI

From August 1-25, twenty-nine Andreans left behind the comforts and conveniences of Canada to travel to Malawi in the south-eastern part of Africa. Twenty-three students were accompanied by four teachers and two Old Boys from the class of 2005 in a multifaceted adventure consisting of three distinct components: a community service project, a Gold level Duke of Edinburgh's Award hiking expedition and a safari.

The community service project was the culmination of a year long fundraising effort to support the construction of a kitchen facility for the Mulanje Mission Hospital in rural Malawi. The boys raised just over $48,000 through a variety of creative initiatives. This money was funnelled to the hospital through a Presbyterian Church connection with the plan that construction would be well under way before our arrival. As it turned out, the kitchen was actually almost finished when we arrived. However, there was no shortage of work to be done by our boys. Many of them spent time teaching lessons at the local primary school as well as leading a variety of games during their recess periods. Our boys also did a fantastic job of providing a much needed facelift to a playroom attached to the children's ward of the hospital by painting a lively array of animals, landscapes and symbols on the walls. Finally, a few of the boys had the opportunity to travel with a medical Outreach team to some of the communities surrounding the hospital. This allowed them to experience a little of what life is like in rural areas as they helped out by weighing and recording the weights of hundreds of babies. The community service experience concluded with a heart warming ceremony at the primary school on the final morning, and an impressive grand opening and ribbon cutting celebration at our brand new Mulanje Mission Hospital kitchen in the afternoon.

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award hiking expedition was a five day adventure to the highest and farthest reaches of the Mulanje Mountain massif. Every member of our expedition team was successful in conquering Sapitwa summit which, at 2998 m.a.s.l., is the highest point in the Mulanje mountain range. Many of the boys have suggested that summiting Sapitwa was one of the toughest things they've ever done, but the experiences and hardships they shared on this journey certainly enabled them to gel as teammates, and as friends. We could not have been more proud of their performance. The boys exhibited a high degree of character and perseverance.

Following these intense experiences, group members had a chance to unwind with some sun, surf and sand at a beautiful Lake Malawi beach resort called Club Makokolā. A couple days of snorkelling, swimming and lounging was exactly what we needed to reflect on everything we had seen, felt and learned over the previous two weeks. After this time at Club Mak, the St. Andrew's contingent flew to Johannesburg to embark on an unforgettable five day safari in South Africa's Kruger National Park where they had the opportunity to observe elephants, rhinos, water buffalo, zebras, giraffe, impala, baboons, hippos, crocodiles, and even the rare Cheetah in their natural habitat. What a fantastic way this was to finish off an amazing African journey.

All of us were happy to return to Canada, but we did so with a far greater appreciation for how fortunate we really are. For at least a short time, none of us will be taking things for granted in quite the same way that we did before our Malawian adventures.

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award expeditions allow our students the chance to engage in physical challenges and thereby helps to cultivate in them a spirit of adventure and discovery. They provide opportunities for students to explore nature and in the process, to learn more about the world around them and to better connect with that world. The chance to work together in a team with a common purpose also seems to help students learn more about themselves.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The Christian Fellowship is a place where students gather to strengthen their faith in God, no matter where your faith lies. Our weekly meetings provide a time to focus on our walk with God, a time to forget about school work and the busyness of life at Saint Andrews. It is a great place where we can not only watch movies and play games, but also dig into the deeper questions in life and discuss how our faith impacts the lives that we lead.

This year we looked into a number of books in the Bible; Proverbs, Luke, John, Romans, 1 Corinthians. We had the opportunity to learn about each person's spiritual gifts, which are outlined in various letters written by Paul. Furthermore, we discussed the importance of love, especially in a school environment, where the Andrean Brotherhood is so important.

Several highlights of this year include presenting skits and lessons during morning chapels, watching Nooma videos, and having students of other faiths take involved in our discussions. It's been a great year and we hope to see the fellowship grow even larger and stronger in the coming years.

PSAC

PSAC (Photographers of SAC) was first established by Jeremy Slessor and Adam Laing in 2003. PSAC's mandate is to promote photography and today we do this by having students take pictures of school events and having Photography meetings once a week where we talk about photography and learn some useful tips not only on taking pictures but on programs such as Photoshop. The faculty advisors are Mr. Kimmerer and Mr. Burton. The Current Chairman is Evan Kuo and the Vice Chairman is Geoff Ruddock.

S.A.G.E.

The St. Andrew's Green Environmentalists (S.A.G.E.) are a group of young men dedicated to the preservation of the environment at the school, in the Town of Aurora, and around the world. In the past, these young men have educated the students and faculty about the importance of recycling, endangered species, how climate change is beginning to affect the Arctic and Antarctic regions of our planet. One of the events put on by SAGE was the ever-popular 'Reptilia' show including a 17 ft. Burmese python. This year, the group has focused on improving the school's recycling program, reducing our energy consumption by encouraging the staff and students to turn off the lights, and will begin an 'anti-idling' campaign to reduce car exhaust in the spring. In the future, the students would like to begin a green bin program at the school to help divert organic waste from our local landfills and will help the Dining Hall grow herbs that can be used to make student meals.

Jim Herder

"Jim Herder, SAC's Director of Advancement retires today after 23 years in that position and a 50 year connection with his beloved alma mater. At a special retirement dinner held recently in Toronto, I paid tribute to Jim's many accomplishments.

I'll quote from that speech; "As Editor of The Andean, as organizer of Alumni events (both at home and overseas) and as a tireless campaigner for the Endowment, Special Projects, and the Campus Master Plan, Jim quite simply IS the face of St. Andrew's – in Aurora or many miles from it.

What his friends and admirers in far-flung places may not realize is just how much the Andean community means to him and how devoted he has been in serving its interest."

Jim and Gail Herder will leave soon for an extended summer vacation in Newfoundland and then return to Aurora. I expect we'll see Jim on the sidelines for the first games in the fall. Please join me in wishing Jim a happy retirement." TS

“Ken Ryan is also retiring today. He has worn more hats at SAC over the past 13 years than anyone I know. Archivist, Community Service and Student Activities Coordinator, Basketball Coach, tour guide instructor, laptop conference monitor, MacPherson Hockey Tournament announcer, remind the Headmaster where to stand on Cadet Parade days and so on and so on. Without someone like Ken overseeing small, but vitally important details, large school events would not go smoothly. Thank you Ken for your dedication to St. Andrew's.” TS

John MacDonald

Johnny Mac's impact on the hockey program can be measured in wins, championships and successful graduates. His dedication to his hockey program was second to none, and both players and parents benefited from his experience and hard work. As Head of the Phys-Ed Department, John was well liked by staff and students alike. Good Luck back at NMKT, J Mac!

Janice Sadler

"Mrs. Jan Sadler leaves us to return to her position with the York Region District School Board. Jan and I worked together as an advisory team with grade 7-08. Our careers in education have followed similar paths and I count her as a new friend whom I hope to keep in contact with. She has been a very supportive and patient supporter of students in both the Upper and Middle School. We shall all miss the enthusiasm that she brought to Rogers Hall each day. Thank you Jan and best of luck in your future endeavours." MH

Tiffany McGregor

"Mrs. Tiffany McGregor joined the faculty for a year teaching grade 7 mathematics and science. Tiffany has been an inspiration to me with her philosophy on the teaching of mathematics and I shall miss our discussions. She threw herself into the SAC lifestyle by offering unlimited extra assistance to students and also offered a Science Fair experience for her students. Tiffany, thanks again so much for all that you have done here for the grade 7 students and we await the exciting news of the arrival of your first child in November". MH

Mike Harding

Mike joined SAC as an Assistant Housemaster and Science teacher. He was enthusiastic and dedicated, and soon became a student favorite. Thank you for your hard work, and good luck in your future endeavours.

Stephanie Seagram

"Stephanie Seagram has been a true soldier who helped out in many areas of school life over the last year and a half by taking over responsibilities for Mrs. Berman and then Mr. Kowaltschuk. Her talents took her into the Visual Arts and Geography classrooms, drama during Tuesday arts, the Middle School House League program last fall along with stepping in to take over as our Outreach co-ordinator. Stephanie brought a wonderful vision to the Middle School and she is one of the most positive human beings I have ever met. Thank you Stephanie for your many contributions to the lives of the Middle School students." MH

PRIZE DAY

Middle School Prize Day

Director Of Middle School Mr. Michael Hanson

Headmaster, Invited Guests, Faculty, Parents and last but not least students of the Middle School. It is my pleasure to welcome all of you to this year's Middle School Prize Day. I would like to thank Reverend Paul Roffey for leading our last chapel service of the school year and for all of his work to ensure that our mornings in chapel send us off for the day with a most meaningful message.

As we look back on this year, we may very well ask, "was it really all worth it?" - the anxiety, the frenetic activity, the commitment, the responsibility, the disappointment, the elation, the HOMEWORK. Over the past 10 months, this group of students has been jumping, shouting, chasing, burping, squealing, and generally keeping very busy in Rogers Hall. What will they remember about the 2007-2008 school year in a few years. It would be interesting to know what the parents here today remember as a grade 7 or 8 student. Was it knowing the difference between an equilateral triangle and an isosceles triangle, was I able to know the name of the first Prime Minister or how to conjugate verbs en Francais? My guess is that their memories revolve around friends and activities that made them feel that they belonged. Your parents probably did not do their homework every evening, they more than likely left their beds unmade, slept in too late and probably got into disagreements with their parents. Although this may be hard for you to believe, they behaved in many ways, similarly to the way you behave today. I truly believe that the past year has mirrored what many other generations have experienced. You have travelled a long ten month journey where some of the best and most memorable experiences may have come from outside the classroom. The Beyond the Gates experience last September took many of you out of your comfort zone as you dealt with being away from home and working with unfamiliar classmates. Our athletic program has allowed many of you to be selected for teams and learn how to win and lose with dignity while some have experienced the challenge of dealing with the disappointment of not making a team that you had your heart set on. Similarly, you have learned how to work together as a team and deal with the struggle of putting your personal needs behind that of your team. These are some of the most important "quote classes unquote

Many of you have achieved some of your best results in a course in which you received no formal marks and has been the most important course since you stepped onto the campus last September. This course is Friendship 101 which most of you take more seriously than all the math, science, history, geography and other subjects put together. Your Middle School years are challenging as you develop from being a young boy into your teenage years, feeling accepted and valued is critical to your success. The development of your teamwork, social networking skills and the ability to respect others will enable you to succeed in your later years as an adult in the global community. St. Andrew's has given you many formal and informal opportunities to work on these skills surrounded by faculty and parents that care for you and believe in you.

The singularity, most important thing that happened this year is the fact that many of you have made mistakes in classrooms, hallways, residences, sports fields and arenas and in the dining hall. Making these mistakes and learning how to deal with them is arguably the best education that you received during the course of the year and is a crucial part of growing up and maturing into an Adrean. Looking back on the past ten months many of you have grown into better young men as a result of having experienced failure and trying to deal with it in a constructive way. Learning from your mistakes is an important life lesson. It is often from our failures that we achieve a new and better success. So was it really worth it? As an educator I could not be happier for all of you as I believe that many of you have reached Scholar status in some of the most important life skills that will serve you well in the future.

Today I feel it is important to speak about the grade 8 class as this day is really for them. For many of you it has been a three year journey and you have much to be proud of. For Christian, Shawn, Justin, Kelsey, Borna, Spencer, Daniel, Michael, Terry, Mark, Haitan, Alex, Zachary, Julian, Stefan, Kyle and Sean each of you has watched your class grow and while new class members joined you over the past couple of years. As I have mentioned to Mr. Staunton on many occasions, the grade 8 class has been the main reason for the harmonious Middle School environment we've experienced this year. While the Middle School Council has provided excellent leadership, it has been the collective work of all members of a grade 8 class that has been respectful of each other and with the younger members of the Middle School. I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the grade 8 class for their substantial and positive contribution to life this year in Rogers Hall. From our early trip to Ottawa and Camp Wanakita with those crazy counselors to finishing up a few days ago at Great Wolf Lodge crashing along the Niagara River in a jet boat, this grade has had many wonderful memories to look back on for which they should be most proud. You have set a high standard for future grade 8 classes to follow and as players on the Under 14 sports teams you have been excellent role models for your team mates.

The success experienced by the entire Middle School does not come without much work from many people. The support from the Board of Directors and our Headmaster Ted Staunton makes my responsibilities considerably easier. I must also acknowledge the wise counsel and assistance I receive from Barbara Cain, Sabrina D'Angelo and David Galante. The Middle School benefits tremendously from their vision and dedication. However, it is clear that the greatest recognition must go to the faculty who teach more classes than I do, have more supervisory duties than I do and generally are working with the Middle School students from the moment they arrive to the moment they head home. Thank you so much for all you do each day.

Prize Day is always a time to say good bye or really a time to say see you later. Some of our students will be moving onto new schools and also some of our faculty have tremendous opportunities that lie ahead of them next year in new locations. Today is a chance to acknowledge the many contributions made by these faculty. Mrs. Jan Sadler leaves us to return to her position with the York Region District School Board. Jan and I worked together as an advisory team with grade 7-03. Our careers in education have followed similar paths and I count her as a new friend whom I hope to keep in contact with. She has been a very supportive and patient supporter of students in both the Upper and Middle School. We shall all miss the enthusiasm that she brought to Rogers Hall each day. Thank you Jan and best of luck in your future endeavours. Mrs. Tiffany McGregor joined the faculty for a year teaching grade 7 mathematics and science. Tiffany has been an inspiration to me with her philosophy on the teaching of mathematics and I shall miss our discussions. She threw herself into the SAC lifestyle by offering unlimited extra assistance to students and also offered a Science Fair experience for her students. Tiffany thanks again so much for all that you have done here for the grade 7 students and we await the exciting news of the arrival of your first child in November. Ms. Stephanie Seagram has been a true soldier who helped out in many areas of school life over the last year and a half by taking over responsibilities for Mrs. Berman and then Mr. Kowalschuk. Her talents took her into the Visual Arts and Geography classrooms, drama during Tuesday arts, the Middle School House League program last fall along with stepping in to take over as our Outreach co-ordinator. Stephanie brought a wonderful vision to the Middle School and she is one of the most positive human beings I have ever met. Thank you Stephanie for your many contributions to the lives of the Middle School students.

So again, has the past year been worth it and have you been successful? Has this journey simply been about attending classes and doing homework or has the Adrean experience been more than that. I fully believe that the Middle School boys here today are a testament to the fact that education is much more far reaching than textbooks and examinations. In a few moments, we will begin to honour those who have succeeded in one realm of the Adrean experience which is in the classroom. However success can be measured in many ways and is best described in the words of the American educator and civil rights leader Booker T. Washington and I quote "Success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome." I feel confident that many of you flourished in the larger classroom of life and have experienced much success in which you should be proud and as a result have clearly earned a well deserved summer break. Thanks again everyone for a wonderful year.

HEADMASTER'S PRIZE DAY 2008 SPEECH

The arrival on the quad of the "Big Top" tent always signals the end of another school year. For over 80 years, a gathering of this sort has taken place on this beautiful site to celebrate the accomplishments of SAC boys, acknowledge departing faculty and staff and, perhaps, most importantly, congratulate and bid farewell to the Graduating Class. To demonstrate how historic this occasion is, we have archival documentation to indicate that exactly 100 years ago today, Scott Munro's Great Grandfather, Hugh, graduated from SAC at the Rosedale campus. Scott is a member of the Class of 2008. Not many institutions can claim such a remarkable history!

I have always considered it to be an important aspect of my job to thank or compliment people around the school as often as I can. The Leadership Team is similarly inclined. A simple acknowledgement, either verbally or in writing, of a job well done goes a long way in maintaining school-wide morale. It doesn't take a lot of time or effort and it can make a difference in the type of day a student, faculty, staff member, or parent volunteer is having. In an era when the Andrean community can get daily updates on all types of school news and results from the web page, I will not attempt today to summarize the dozens of highlights which make up this successful school year. Instead, I would like to end the year by extending my gratitude to several key individuals and groups:

Firstly, parents, and, increasingly, grandparents, a sincere thank you for the sacrifices you have made in sending your prized possessions to St. Andrew's. Without your strong belief in the lifelong value of an SAC education, we would not be flourishing 109 years after our inception. Early morning transportation, evening pick ups, attendance at extra-curricular events whether in Aurora, Ottawa or Buffalo, constant support through thick and thin, payment for all sorts of special trips – Battlefields, Equador, Malawi and so on – you all deserve a round of applause from your sons and from all of us at SAC.

Thank you to the boys who have, once again, brought enthusiasm, commitment, and a sense of fun to all areas of school life this year. I don't remember having the intense sense of pride in my high school that the boys have for SAC. (Well, then, again; it was UCC!) From sensational academic results to near-professional performances and presentations in drama, music, debating and art, to hard-fought athletic championships, to support for local, national and international charities, the boys have demonstrated heart. I'd bet on an SAC boy anytime!

To Head Prefect Dylan Baker, thank you for the outstanding leadership you have provided for the student body of 550 boys and in particular, for the 16 very capable Prefects who serve with you. Dylan is our answer to a Rhodes Scholar – excellence in qualities of mind and in qualities of person. I guarantee that Dylan will make his mark on the world in the years to come.

To the 2008 Graduating Class, thank you for your contributions to all areas of school life this year. 92 students – an average of 4.7 university offers per student – a total of $648,000 in scholarship offers from universities and colleges in Canada, the U.S., and the U.K. Captaining teams, supervising cadets, assisting in the residences, and spearheading school and community service projects, it makes a big difference to the tone of a school year, if the Graduating Class is pulling in the same direction.

Thank you to Julie Symmes, President, and Michele Cole, Vice-President, and the rest of the Ladies Guild for contributing so much in the way of financial support and events for the boys and school spirit to the school community at-large. We all know who wears the pants in most families. Nothing is different here. Thank you to the Leadership Team and the Faculty & Staff – where would we be without them? One hundred and eighty men and women who consider St. Andrew's more than just a workplace – it is home and an extended family and they give their time and energy accordingly. And finally, to the Chairman, Jeff Chisholm, and the rest of the Board of Directors, thank you for working so diligently behind the scenes on committees and special projects in order to keep SAC at the forefront of middle and secondary education in North America.

I would now like to acknowledge retiring Faculty & Staff. Jim Herder, SAC's Director of Advancement retires today after 23 years in that position and a 50 year connection with his beloved alma mater. At a special retirement dinner held recently in Toronto, I paid tribute to Jim's many accomplishments. I'll quote from that speech, "As Editor of The Andrean, as organizer of Alumni events (both at home and overseas) and as a tireless campaigner for the Endowment, Special Projects, and the Campus Master Plan, Jim quite simply IS the face of St. Andrew's – in Aurora or many miles from it. What his friends and admirers in far-flung places may not realize is just how much the Andrean community means to him and how devoted he has been in serving its interest." Jim and Gail Herder will leave soon for an extended summer vacation in Newfoundland and then return to Aurora. I expect we'll see Jim on the sidelines for the first games in the fall. Please join me in wishing Jim a happy retirement.

Ken Ryan is also retiring today. He has worn more hats at SAC over the past 13 years than anyone I know. Archivist, Community Service and Student Activities Coordinator, Basketball Coach, tour guide instructor, laptop conference monitor, MacPherson Hockey Tournament announcer, remind the Headmaster where to stand on Cadet Parade days and so on and so on. Without someone like Ken overseeing small, but vitally important details, large school events would not go smoothly. Thank you Ken for your dedication to St. Andrew's.

One of the most distinguished awards for the Faculty & Staff at SAC is the Long Service Pin in recognition of 25 years of service to St. Andrew's. This year, a popular member of the faculty receives this award – would David aka "Juice" Josselyn please come forward.

Now – on to the big show. Thank you.
